INDIAN WOMEN EMIGRANTS.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—May I draw your attention to the following statement published in the "Swarajya" of Madras dated the 9th November 1922?

The Secretary of the Malaya deputation is reported to have said before a general meeting of the Planters. "Another matter discussed before the Standing Committee for Emigration was the ratio of men to women labourers. The Indian Committee thought that a fair ratio would be one woman to every four or five men. From the latest figures on hand it would seem that taking the whole population of Indians the proportion was one woman to nine men while the ratio on estates was one to eight."

This will be very disquieting news to the Indian public and we cannot for a moment tolerate the idea of sending one woman for every four or five men. This dehumanising disproportion among men and women is sure to lead to the demoralisation of the Indian population there and we must oppose it as strongly as possible.

The Government ought to contradict this news at once if it is false and misleading; but if the statement of the Secretary of the Malaya Deputation be true then it is really unfortunate that this important information which affects the lives of thousands of our people should come to us in this round about way from far off Malaya.

The Indian public ought to be wideawake on this question and we must not allow any system of emigration which means to revive the worst features of the old indenture slavery—Yours, etc.,

BENARSI DAS CHATURVEDI.
Satyagrah-Ashram Sabarmati.

TILAK SWARJ SANGH CONFERENCE.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—The meeting of the Maharastra Provincial Congress Committee at Virar proves that Maharastra is still following the lead of the Mahatma and holds no views contrary to the Congress mandate.

Though defeated, leaders of the Change Party are now looking forward to a conference of the members of the Tilak Swaraj Sangh, to be held at Yeotmal in Berar on the 9th and 10th of December. They mean to pass their resolutions with regard to Council entry and show to India that the whole Maharastra favours their view.

This will be a mistake. The recent capture of the M. P. C. C. by staunch Congressman of the Non-change Party declares by itself where Maharastra stands.

I appeal to those members of the Tilak Swaraj Sangh, who are staunch Non-co-operators of the Non-change Party, to muster strong at Yeotmal and thus to pronounce their own opinions on the present political problems and help in the elections, by the exercise of their votes, of the office-bearers for the ensuing year of those who are staunch adherents of their Party.—Yours, etc.,

NO-CHANGE.

N-C-O'S AND MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—Some time ago the N.C.O.'s published a long list of their candidates for the next Municipal election. Last year we were fed by these N.C.O. candidates on hopes, and many good things, in improving the roads, water supply etc., were promised in their lectures. The city's condition is the same, if not worse.

I am a true and loyal non-co-operator and like me there are several thousands who would like to know from each N.C.O. candidate the following particulars:—

What is their programme of work?

Will each candidate, who goes to the Corporation, attend it regularly and work for the good of the city by going to the voters and enquire of their complaints.

At present, with the exception of 3 or 4, the rest of theN.C.O.'s are sleeping workers and absentees.

If the N.C.O.'s seek election as an honour then they had better confine to Mahatma's constructive programme only.

The N. C. O. voters do not wish to be duped and if the candidates are true and loyal followers of Mahatma Gandhi, then, in fairness to the City, they will put in earnest and sincere workers. Numbers do not count, but it is is the quality and not unmber that we care for as N.C.O's.

Yours ec.,
N.C.O. VOTER.

SIR ARTHUR CONAN DOYLE

the author who has immortalised himself by his internationally famous book "Sherlock Holmes."

"THE DISCIPLE OF NAPOLEON"

It is an Eclair glorious Picture that narrates to you in a delightful romantic manner the amour ous escapades of the gallant and hand some Lieutenant of Napoleon, the Court intrigues of a great Emperor, the splendour, pomp and pageantry of that mighty kingmaker, the military grandeur of the great warrior's entourage and his keen participation in the love matters of his Court favorities.

"THE DISCIPLE OF NAPOLEON"

is a magnificent spectacle, stupendously staged, gorgeously set up and admirably enacted.

You see some of the dazzling costumes of the aristocracy of France, the soul-pas dances of the medieval times, thousands of beautiful damsels, fine gallant fighting men, the elite of French Society, wonderful scenes of those Mighty Days—the dear old France of those memorable times.

THE RUSE OF "THE RATTLER"

Two Madly Galloping Horses!

Two Swift, Fearless Riders!

The horses came abreast. There was a short, sharp struggle. Both riders fell, and crashed down the hill.

Pursued and pursuer faced each other. One was the "Rattlesnake," a notorious bad man, The other was—a girl!

It was the beginning of a strong romance; of a breathless, thrilling story of plot and counterplot in a lawless country.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

Dec. 1.

New York market was closed yesterday whilst Liverpool is reported 2 points higher. The American market remains steady and we do not think prices will fall much. We look for higher prices in the long run and would advice buying on good breaks. The Marwari Bazar opened this morning for F. G. M. G. Broach April/May at Rs. 459½ easier. At the opening of the market there was some selling by an office. Later on buying by Marwari jobbers the prices went upto Rs. 461½. The prices remained steady at Rs. 460 till 4 p.m. The market was entirely featureless, and the volume of business done was very small. The Bazar finally closed at Rs. 462. At Colaba the market opened at Rs. 461½ and closed at Rs. 460.

Fine M. G. Oomra December/January opened at Rs. 415 and went upto Rs. 417 the same being the rate at 4 p.m. Whilst March Oomra opened at Rs. 410 and ruled Rs. 411 at 4 p.m. There was very little doing in these contracts. F. G., M. G Bengal December/January was Rs. 331 and March Rs. 338 nominal.

Our market for ready cotton was quiet yesterday and the demand was moderate by Exporters and local spinners.

To-day's tenders are as follows:—

FOREIGN MARKETS.

During the week under review the Home markets have been fluctuating, but on the whole show some slight decline both in Liverpool and New York. In the early part of the week the market advanced on good general buying. Later on the prices eased owing to the absence of buying power. The market again improved on Commission houses buying and short covering. The American spinners having sold heavily ahead the spot demand in South has temporarily eased, and

RED CROSS CRICKET CARNIVAL

ALL INDIA VS. ALL ENGLAND

SECOND DAY'S GAME.

The second day's game began on Friday at precisely 11 a.m. in fine dry weather, the over night's not-outs of the English team, Kilner and Phillips opened the score for the day. The game started at a comparitively a slow rate but towards the close of the game for luncheon, it grew more and more fast and without the loss of a single more wicket over 150 runs had been added to previous day's total. After luncheon however a mishap fir the English side started and Kilner soon went down to Joshi's bowlings after a real valuable contribution of 128. His partner Phillips also succumbed very soon to Kalapesi's bowling and was the 2nd best man of his side contributing 85 runs. After the above two players had finished their accounts, it was only Captain Travers who could do something and added 40 runs to his side by a forcible hard slogging. The tail of the English team was not expected to do much and as such added only a few runs to the score thus far reached. The most marked feature of the innings was the good bowling of Kalapesi, slack fielding of the whole Indian team in general and the patient and dashing game of Kilner Phillips and Travers.

The Indian team began their second venture at 10 minutes to four and Phiroz Khan opened the game in partnership with Navle. The first disaster happened to the side when only 3 runs were scored and Navle retired to the pavilion. It was a great day for Col. Mistry and Phiroz Khan both of whom played a real patient and brilliant game and contributed 44 and 46 respectively to the score of their side. The day however closed here when the score stood to 107 for the loss of 4 wickets.

FUSS ABOUT THE NEW BALL.

Vajifdar who was put in charge of the ball found the ball somewhat damaged and put it before the captain who referred the matter to P. Baloo, the Umpire. The Umpire decided that the ball was damaged and as such a new ball ought to have been given as a rule. But Simpson the umpire at the other end objected to a new ball being brought in and even when Capt. Travers offered to have no objection for replacing the old ball with a new one, didn't allow a new ball. The ball was, however, really damaged and Travers who saw the trouble came himself to the field and both the skippers jointly persuaded Mr. Simpson to allow them to have a new ball. Mr. Simpson at last yielded and Abdus Salam started bowling with it from the Gymkhana end.

FRIDAY'S GAME.

The over-night not-outs, Phillips and Kilner, started yesterday's game at 11 a.m. for the All-England side, and Joshi the Hindu bowler opened the attack from the Gymkhana end for the Indian team. The first over came to be a maiden, and Kalapesi took the ball at the other end. Kilner sent him for a single to leg. No more runs came out in the over. In the second over of Joshi only a single was added and 110 appeared on the board. The first four for the day was scored by Phillips who sent Joshi to the square-leg. The same batsman next lifted Joshi to mid-off but Col. Mistry who was rather too far to reach the ball could not get the catch. 120 appeared after a play of 15 minutes, and the batsmen were playing a patient and steady game, scoring only occasional singles. Kilner next hit Kalapesi to mid-on for a couple of runs and thus reached his half century. Once again Col. Mistry failed to hold Phillips for a very hot and low catch off Joshi's bowling.

KILNER-PHILLIPS PARTNERSHIP

Kilner now opened his arms to hit Joshi, and sent him once for four to mid-off and next for a clean sixer over the Hindu Gymkhana tent, thus surpassing the top-scorer Kapadia of the Indian side by one run. Abdus Salaam took charge of the ball from Joshi at the Gymkhana end, and Kilner and Phillips both scored a single off him in his first over. Phillips looked to be improving in his rate of scoring and was batting very hard. He now hit Kalapesi to long-off and got four without an actual boundary. Aziz Khan now replaced Kalapesi at the Police Court end and missed his maiden only by a single run scored by Phillips. In his next over, however, Kilner sent him twice for four to the out-point and thus passed his 70 runs. Both batsmen were now playing confidently. 50 and 60 over a century came in quick succession and Phillips passed his fourth decade.

CHANGE OF BALL.

Vajifdar was here put in charge of the ball. A ball was again brought in by Capt. Travers and the game after this unnecessary fuss over the ball was continued with a new ball, Abdus Salaam having obtained the privilege of putting it into play instead of Vajifdar. The very first ball from Abdus Salaam was sent for four to leg by Kilner who now reached his 80, while his partner was exactly half of that score.

Naidu took charge of the ball from Abdus Salaam now, and obtained a maiden. Vajifdar followed suit by getting a maiden to his credit at the other end.

Kilner passed his 90 by a fine hard hit to the cover-point to Vajifdar's bowling, Naidu who happened to be the fielder there having allowed the ball to pass through his legs.

KILNER'S FAST SCORING.

Kilner again got two successful leg-glances, each of a four to Naidu's bowling and thus reached his century amidst tremendous ovation from the crowd. Once akain Kalapesi appeared at the wickets for bowling at the Police Court end, but Phillips sent him straight for four to long-on, off Abdus Salaam. The same batsman again sent Kalapesi at the same point for a three and reached half a century. Naidu got a similar treatment from Phillips and was sent for four by a beautiful leg-glance. Phillips here gave a quick catch behind the wickets off Naidu's bowling but Navle failed to hold him.

The most glaring feature of this morning's game was the slack fielding on the part of the Indian team and almost everybody had made a fault or two in such a short period. The second century was put up on the board at exactly 12-30 amidst deafening cheers, Kilner being 96 and Phillips 60. The bowlers were making no impression at all, and with bad fielding such as was being witnessed, the batemen went on getting everything in their own way. Phiroz Khan, the Kashmiri, was next put in charge of the ball and began with his usual peculiar style of bowling.

KILNER'S GREAT FEAT.

Kilner, however, treated the Kashmiri's effort very coldly and sent his first four balls to the boundary and again the sixth ball for a four thus making 20 runs in one over. Kilner now had made two tens over a century and was cheered by the crowd, shouts of "play fast" being heard from all round. He got one more boundary off Kalapesi to the deep-leg. Kalapesi began attack from the Police Court end, and only two were scored off him by Kilner. Aziz Khan was put up for bowling from the Gymkhana end but was sent for two fours to the cut-point and next for a two to leg.

The game here closed for luncheon when the score stood at 248—Kilner 125, and Phillips 73.

The scores:—

AFTER LUNCH.

Kalapesi commenced attack from the Police Court end for the Indian team and Kilner faced him at the other end. Two singles were scored during the over by each batsman and 250 appeared on the board. Joshi took the ball from the Gymkhana end and Kilner lifted his very second ball to long-on. But the ball was too short for the fielder to hold it. Phillips next got a fluky sneak to Joshi at the third man and obtained two. Kilner next lifted Kalapesi at the third-man for a hot catch but the ball was just too high for Aziz to get it. Kilner who wasn't playing very good after luncheon once more lifted Joshi to long-off but was safely held by Pheroz Khan this time. (254—5—128). The retiring batsman had given a fine display of patient hard hitting and except for a few very difficult chances his innings was most brilliant. If there is anything that could be learnt from his play, by Indians, it is patience which was so conspicuous in his game. He played for over five hours and his huge contribution of 128, consisted of 19 fours and one six.

PHILLIPS' FINE DISPLAY.

Travers, the skipper of the English team joined Phillips who had already gone over eighty and was slowly nearing his century. He soon got into disaster, however, and was smartly held behind the wickets by Navle to Kalapesi's bowling. (266—6—85). Phillips was another example of a combination of patience and hard slogging. He never failed to punish a loose ball and never also forgot to give due importance to a difficult ball. His valuable 85 comprising of 10 hits of four were well appreciated by the spectators.

Harvey now took the field in place of Phillips. Travers opened his account by a fine hit to square leg to Joshi's bowling getting a clean four. The same batsman scored another four to Kalapesi by a straight drive to cover-point. It was now Harvey's turn to score and he opened to Joshi's bowling with a four to leg. Travers next hit Kalapesi for a similar hit to leg for four and passed his first decade. Another four to the same bowler in the same over and a few singles and Travers immediately reached 20. Travers was simply slogging and was getting only fours. In three more strokes to Kalapesi he had made 30 to his credit.

THIRD CENTURY HOISTED.

At a quarter to three the third century was hoisted up amidst cheers. Joshi seemed for some time to puzzle the batsmen but he never succeeded in disposing off any of them. Kalapesi was also maintaining a fine length and speed over the ball but was too unlucky to get a wicket. He was bowling hard for the whole day and certainly did splendid service to his side. For a time the game became very very slow only about ten being added to the score in 25 minutes play. Kalapesi at last got a splendid ball to Travers and when the Captain was looking quite unmanageable clean broke through his defence by a well-pitched hard ball. (321—7—40) The retiring skipper of the English team had played a real dashing game and his 40 runs included 7 hits of four.

Cullen was the next man in and Abdus Salam took charge of the ball from the Gymkhana end. The bowler began with a maiden over. For a time nothing was coming out, either for the bowler or for the batsmen and the game had become too tedious and dull, until at last Harvey hit a four to Abdus Salam by a fine hard drive to long-off. He was, however, no more to be seen in his place having been smartly held behind the wickets by Navle to Abdus Salam's bowling. (331—8—19).

COLLAPSE OF THE TAIL.

W. H. Cummings now joined Cullen but came to the field only to see his colleague being clean bowled by Kalapesi by a fast off-break (331—9—3).

L. Kaye was the last man in and got a flucky boundary for four runs to Kalapesi's at the square leg. Cummings next added four more to Abdus Salam's bowling by a straight drive to the pavilion. Kalapesi was once more successful and obtained an easy catch from Cummings to his own bowling (340—10—5). L. Kaye remained undefeated till the end with a small score of 4 to his credit. The innings thus closed at 3.30 p.m. for a score of 340.

INDIANS TEAM'S SECOND VENTURE.

At exactly 10 minutes to 4, Phiroz Khan opened the score for the second innings by a single to L. Kaye, who started the attack for the English side from the Police Court the Gymkhana end and Navle the second end. Kilner took charge of the ball from man of the side faced hib. He got only a single in the over but was unfortunate in being clean bowled by L. Kaye in the bowler's very second over. (3—1—1).

COL. MISTRY-PHIROZ KHAN PARTNERSHIP.

Col. Mistry, the Captain of the Indian team next came in and opened his account by a hot for three to Kilner at the third-man. Both the batsmen seemed to understand the situation in which they were placed at this time and played a steady patient game which is always so necessary to begin with. Phiroz Khan at last opened his arms to Kilner and sent him straight to the pavilion by a giant drive. The Colonel followed the example of his partner and sent a similar shit to Kilner. Once more four by Phiroz Khan at the third-man to L. Kaye's bowling followed and the first decade appeared on the board. Mistry once more imitated his partner and sent exactly a similar stroke to the same bowler and got four. 20 soon came on board and Colonel Mistry drove L. Kaye for four more to the long-off. A bye-boundary followed and 30 appeared amidst loud cheers. The batsmen were becoming more and more free with the bowling and Phiroz Khan got two good fine shots for four to Kilner's bowling off to long-off towards the pavilion. 40 were not very late in coming and with only 30 minutes' play that much had been put up. Col. Mistry next made a wrong stroke to leg to a rising ball from Kaye but the fielder who was facing the sun couldn't see the ball to get the catch. Both the batsmen appeared on board at about 4-30 p.m. Amidst loud ovation from the surrounding tents. The batsmen were getting an easy way with the ball and only strokes for four were registered Rhodes was put on now in place of Kilner but the change proved to be of no avail. He received the same cold treatment as the other bowlers and was sent to cover-point for four by Phiroz Khan bringing off thereby 60 on board.

COMPETITION BETWEEN PARTNERS.

A competition ranged, as if, between the two partners and both were scoring at an equal speed with 30 runs to each man's credit at this time. The bowlers' were finding themselves quite ill-at-ease and Phiroz Khan sent L. Kaye to the boundary twice in one over. Kilner now replaced L. Kaye at the Police Court end but he was no better before the Colonel who sent him without very great trouble to square-leg for four. 70 followed immediately and the figure was scored in exactly the same number of minutes, it being 5 p.m. now.

A BAD MISS BY TRAVERS.

Phiroz Khan ought to have been caught at this time in slips but Capt. Travers missed the easy catch after several attempts on his part to hold the ball which he could not firmly grasp. It was an unusual thing for Travers to miss a catch in slips and it may be due to the disturbed condition of his mind at this time, being the Captain of his side. 80 were not late in coming and Phiroz with 40 and Mistry with 38 were having their strokes with perfect confidence. Phiroz Khan placed two of Rhodes balls to short leg where there happened to be no fielder and both the times the wicket-keeper was required to run for the ball this giving 5 runs for the two short strokes The total score was nearing a century the individual scores were close at half a century. Phiroz Khan was becoming quite aggressive now and Col. Mistry was giving him occasional remonstrances to keep up and play a steady game. The crowd which had by this time assumed huge proportions was applauding every stroke of the botsmen and joy prevailed everywhere for the time-being. Hard lines for the Indians and their captain. At a most opportune time, when there were only five remaining for the century to complete, Col. Mistry made a wrong stroke to L. Kaye's rising ball and was caught far behind the wickets by Hosie. (95—2—44). Col. Mistry is always a reliable batsman and in times of need he will never fail. His style of play is most attractive and there is ample force in his strokes. His 44 include 6 hits of four. Kalapesi, the young Parsee bowler next joined Phiroz Khan but came only to see a mishap happening to his partner who was caught just in the same way as Col. Mistry to the same bowler, the only change being that instead of Hosie, it was Travers this time to hold him. (98—3 46). Phiroz Khan is undoubtedly a batsman of some skill in him. He is very fast in his strokes when he gets them. His contribution of 46 included fours and helped to lay solid a foundation for the players to follow.

Abdus Salam replaced the retiring player and opened with a two to leg to L. Kaye's bowling. He was not however, to stay any longer there; for after adding only two singles to his score got caught by Hosie at the short cover-point to the bowling of Rhodes. (105—4—4).

S. M. Joshi next joined Kalapesi and opened with a single to cover-point to Rhodes. The game thus closed here at 5.30 p.m. for the day when the total score stood to 107, Kalapesi 3 and Joshi 2 still playing.

MAHATMA GANDHI.

CALCUTTA ASTROLOGER'S PREDICTION

According to an astrologer of Calcutta, says the "Democrat" Mahatma Gandhi will be honourably released from jail sometimes between August-October 1924. It is a noteworthy fact that previously, too, many an event has taken place exactly as it was foretold by this particular astrologer. For instance it is said he had presaged about Mr. Lloyd George that he will have to leave his office disgraced and humiliated and every one now knows that his prophesy has been literally fulfilled.

The usual salute of 13 guns was fired from the Janjira Fort Battery and the day was observed as one of festival by the subjects of the State.

MUNICIPAL STANDING COMMITTEE.

A special meeting of the Standing Committee of the Bombay Municipal Corporation was held on Friday afternoon further to consider the Budget Estimates for 1923-24. Dr. M. C. Javle presided.

The Committee gave consideration to the following items, which were ultimately agreed to:—

4. Town Duty collection Rs. 1,52,200.
5. Upkeep, etc., of Municipal Head Office Rs. 86,686.
6. General Stores Rs. 87,103.
7. Miscellaneous charges Rs. 61,75,925.

13. Street cleaning and Conservancy (including Road-watering) Rs. 32,35,420.

With regard to the item of Primary Education Mr. P. J. Murzban wanted to know why the Committee should not knock out the sum of Rs. 4,200 which was being given every year by way of grants-in-aid. to the schools for deaf and dumb mutes. The schools, he thought would not be closed up if they stopped giving the grant. They were there to retrench the expenditurue as far as possible.

Mr. Boman Behram said that was not the direction in which they should retrench the expenditure.

The Chairman said that they were now trying to make primary education free and compulsory. The report of the Schools Committee on the matter was under the consideration of the Corporation. They were trying to open twenty new schools in the city every year, so that pupils might be brought under compulsion to take advantage of them.

BOMBAY POLICE COURTS.

ALLEGED CHEATING.

At the Esplanade Police Court, on Thursday, before Rao Bahadur C. H. Setalvad, Acting Chief Presidency Magistrate, Mr. J. N. Mody of Messrs. Croft Mody and Company charged Khan Bahadur Jacob B. Israel, Retired Deputy Collector, Thana, and Joseph Jacob B. Israel, (the son of accused No. 1) with cheating and criminal breach of trust in respect of about Rs. 35,000.

Mr. N. N. Saher, Bar-at-Law with Mr. K. F. Nariman, pleader, appeared for the complainant, while Mr. Binning, Bar-at-Law, defended the accused.

Mr. Jamshedji Nusservanji Mody, merchant, in his evidence stated that he was a partner in Messrs. Croft Mody and Company and Brendon and Company. His Head-Office was in Gresham Building, Fort. He had got a bone factory at Thana for over twenty years In connection with the factory he urged very often to go to Thana, Latterly he used to go there only occassionally. He came to know accused No. 1 in his official capacity at Thana in about 1918 when he was Deputy Collector at Thana. After that they got more friendly. Sometimes accused No. 1 saw him in Bombay also. He might have seen accused No. 2 with accused No. 1 but he could not exactly remember when. Accused No.2 was the son of accused No. 1. Subsequently in 1919 the accused No. 1 retired from service. After his retirement, accused No. 1, approached witness for giving him some business and witness appointed accused No. 1 as Gresham's Agent to work in Bombay. Accused No. 1 could not secure any business. At that time there were no monetary dealings between his firm and the accused. Witness then described how he was prevailed upon to join the tannery business of the accused.

Witness entirely relied upon the accused because he was the holder of the title of Khan Bahadur and he had just retired from the post of a Deputy Collector and also because he showed witness a book of his testimonials containing testimonials from very good people. From March 1920 to November 1921 witness paid at the request of accused No.1 Rs. 40,000 to the account of the tannery business on the rosy representations made to them (the Company) by him. All these amounts had been entered in the account-books. Out of the amount of Rs. 40,000 they had received back Rs. 7,000 at different times. No particulars were given nor any dates given in the expenditure statement. As far as witness knew Jacob Israel and Company was accused No. 1 and witness did not know what position accused No. 2 had in the Company. After 16th February last witness received certain information regarding the tannery. Witness sent Mr. Adriamwalla, his assistant to Nandod to make enquiry about the tannery. After some time both the accused came to his office and they were questioned whether the stock was according to their last letter, and they assured witness that it was so. Then accused No. 1 said he wanted to go out for a short time to get his pension and he left the Office, and accused No. 2 stayed there. Witness told accused to come immediately as the likely purchaser was to come. Shortly afterwards the likely purchaser came. His name was Mr. Boyce He, then, asked accused No 2 to put down the stock on a piece of paper. Mr. K. J. Mody, then, told accused No. 2 that they were not treated fairly by his father (accused No. 1). In the meanwhile, accused No. 1 came up and was told by Mr. Mody that they were not treated fairly by him and his son. Upon that accused No. 1 lost his temper, took up his hat and walked out with his son, accused No. 2 saying "you can write to me what you have to say". Witness did not exactly recollect what had happened to the paper on which accused No. 2 had written the figures. Thereafter, witness filed an information in the Court. Later on, they had the books of the accused examined by Messrs. Fergusson and Company. Chartered Accountants who submitted their reports. Then witness communicated with the State Authorities at Nandod and received a report from the State signed by the Forest Officer.

Cross-examined by Mr. Binning witness said he believed the Commissioner N. D. had reported to the Municipality that their bone mill should be removed from Thana. Accused No. 1 was not at all useful to witness in the matter. Accused No. 1 told him that his tannery business was a very good and flourishing one. He told him that he (the accused) had some valuable monopolies in the Rajpipla State. He (accused No. 1) said that it was a paying business and lot of money was to be made by it. Those were the repreesentations the accused had made before witness began paying moneys.

FRIDAY'S PROCEEDINGE

Mr. Ardeshir Dadabhoy Bhote Chief Forest Officer, Rajpipla State in his evidence, stated that he knew both the accused who had got a tannery at Mandod. Accused No. 1 had a monopoly from the State for the export of hides. The tannery was under attachment by the State to which were owing about Rs.3,000 Witness had visited the tannery when it was working. There were aboutu three or four workmen in April.

Cross-examined by Mr. Binning, witness said he had been inside the tannery many a time. The goods were sold by the accused and the State realized the money. He had not received the summons to attend the Court. He made his estimates some time in March 1918. He could not say whether it was at the request of the complainant that he had prepared the estimates.

The case was then adjourned till to-day.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

Saturday, December 2, 1922.

INDO-BRITISH EXCHANGE.

If, in spite of an excess of imports over exports during the last month, the rupee-sterling exchange has been showing signs of recovery during the last few weeks, we can only conclude that the result is due to the favourable balance of trade during the seven months of the current year, to the expectations of further rise in exports owing to a good monsoon, and to the effects of heavy sterling borrowings which are meanwhile acting as exports and paying for crores worth of railway material and stores. The effect of all these causes is cumulative. It is, indeed, paying too high a price if we are to secure only a temporary firmness in our exchange market by permanently encumbering the country with the heavy load of foreign debts. But even after borrowings on an unprecedented scale and a good season, the Indo-British exchange has not reached its old parity, and much less the figure which the officially inspired statement had predicted for November to February. The exchange is still below 1s. 4d. though Prof. Jevons in his recent book had declared it would reach 1/5 in November and remain thereabouts till the February following.

In these circumstances we have no hesitation in once again urging that the reconsideration of the Government policy in the matter of currency can no longer be postponed. The futile and stupid expedient of simply sitting on the fence is not only unbecoming the Government, but is positively ruining this country by saddling it with unproductive charges of interest on debt which could have been avoided. For, though ostensibly the recent sterling borrowings have been in response to the suicidal determination to spend 150 crores on the railways without benefit of lapse in five years, in reality one of the most effective causes has been the exigency of Ways and Means for the "Home" Treasury. The Secretary of State still refrains from selling Councils in London as before the disaster of 1920, probably because he knows how utterly bankrupt the present situation of the Government is in regard to currency. The so-called "Home" Charges have, however, to be paid. And so there is nothing for it but to borrow,—even though that means a permanent mortgage of Indian resources; even though it implies a foreign burden which will always be outside the competence of the Government of India to dispose of according to the proper needs of our national economy. Even the British financial Press, which in such matters does not always see eye to eye with Indian publicists, is alarmed at the continued inactivity of the Government of India and demands a revision of policy and a reversion to the old ratio. "The "Statist" of November 4, says, for instance:

"We have from time to time drawn attention to the unhappy results following Government currency results in India. . . That their calculations were upset is a matter of common knowledge, but no steps have yet been taken to remedy the situation that has arisen as a result of the Government's interference with the rupee. The Government, by selling sterling credits at rates considerably above those quoted in the open market, and by revaluing the gold held in the paper currency reserve, incurred a loss of 35 crores of rupees in their fruitless endeavour to maintain th rupee-sterling ratio at Rs. 10 to the gold sovereign instead of Rs. 15 as formerly. . . . . The time seems to have come when the Government might replace the 2s. by the 1s. 4d. rupee. It is true that the pound sterling and the gold sovereign have drawn much closer to each other than was the case when Government decided to fix the value of the rupee in relation to the gold sovereign, bu the latter is still at the moment not an affective unit. It would no doubt be possible to force up the sterling value of the rupee to 2s. by a campaign of vigorous deflation, entailing a severe fall in prices in India; but such a course, with its depressing effects on trade and commerce, is highly undesirable. Or, again, the quotation might automatically ascend to that figure following on a long period of inflation in the United Kingdom. The probability of such an inflationary movement in this country is, however, remote. In the circumstances the familiar 16d. rupee might be officially reinstated."

This long extract has been given with a two-fold object. The mistake and mischief of the Government action in 1920 are too patent to be denied even by their apologists. But, on the other hand, if their suggestion of a reversion to the old ratio is accepted without any further reform, the danger to this country will be as great as ever. For whether we keep to the 2s. or to the 1s. 4d. rupee, so long as the principle of a "managed currency" or the so-called Gold Exchange Standard is maintained, we shall have the same loopholes for periodical tinkering with the monetary standard on the handy pretext of extraordinary circumstances, involving serious breach of faith and legalised fraud; and, what is still worse, we shall be obliged to maintain huge reserves of hard cash outside India to the great inconvenience of the money market in India; to the incalculable loss to Indian trade and industry. This can no longer be tolerated. The Government are, if we read correctly the signs of the times, at their old game of sending out inspired feelers, and then taking the country by storm with the logic of fait accompli. Their spokesmen have thrown out hints of an impending revision in the superfices of the currency organisation. Will the "representatives" of India try and present the country's real demands for a comprehensive and fundamental reform in the currency and banking organisation? The material for such a demand in a co-ordinated form is not wanting. But have we in the existing legislature the right men to undertake such a task?

CORPORATION AND RENT AGT.

The Municipal Corporation has registered one more claim to be reckoned by posterity as the most reactionary clique in the annals of this city, by hastening to adopt the report of its committee on the Rent Act Amending Bill. The President said that the report was approved by nine against one vote when it was brought before the Committee, but the fact remains that it is a minority that has fathered the report, as only nine out of 19 members of the Committee could be found to support it. Mr. Dabholkar had the temerity to ask the tenants to cut their coat according to the cloth, forgetting that whereas the cloth of the tenants is earned by the sweat of their own brows, that of most of the landlord class is produced by that of their less fortunate brethren. Mr. Dabholkar also laid the onus on the advocates of tenants to show that the rents of the newly built houses are so high that they cannot be hired by people of poor and lower middle classes. If Mr. Dabholkar has any doubts on the point, may we suggest it to him to accompany, be it even in his motor car, some o the workers of the Social Service League on one of their sanitation rounds in the slumland of Bombay? Or, if Mr. Dabholkar is the owner of any chawls or flats, let him arrange to find out the family budgets of his tenants. The local official Labour Information Bureau, we are sure, will be only too glad to render him every possible assistance in his undertaking. However, now that the Corporation has finally acquiesced in the injustice, it is no use dwelling upon it, since to have expected it to do anything else would have been to expect figs to grow on brambles. It now rests with the Council and, much more than the Council, the new Corporation which will come into existence next year, to undo the mischief. Even if the Council adopts the Bill without any modification, the new Corporation will have to demand that the operation of the Act be extended by at least five years. The Council, however, if it has a mind to prevent the perpetration of the injustice, can do so when the Bill comes before it for final sanction.

Notes of the Day

Egypt.

The resignation of the Sarwat Pasha Ministry affords clear indication that the people of Egypt are making a definite effort to shake off the incubus of the martial law regime which for the last three years has been stifling all public life under the aegis of the "benevolent" protection of Great Britain. Even the puppet King Fuad is proving restive and is reported to have "openly manifested Zaghlulist sympathies." Poor "King" Fuad! How long can he keep up the pretence of "ruling" his subjects—subjects who have been promised "independence" times without number—with the aid of foreign machine guns! We shall not wonder if one fine morning we are told that on account of "failing health" and "advancing age"—not to say anything of the "strain of administration"—"King" Fuad has gladly abdicated the throne in favour of some other convenient puppet who will be more amenable to advice from the British military authorities in Egypt. Whether the King is really pro-Zaghlulist as reported and whether the new Premier will be able to assert himself and get rid of the martial law regime remains to be seen. In any case, it is becoming increasingly evident that the days of Egypt's emancipation are not far distant.

Protection for Princes.

Lord Reading's despatch to the Secretary of State on the Princes' Protection Act discloses the quibbling legal mind fully at work as few other State documents that have emanated from the Viceroy so far have shown. "The case for Princes was not put before the (Press Act) Committee in complete form," "the finding of the Press Act Committee was not a finding that no protection was required. It was merely a finding that the evidence before the Committee did not show that such protection was necessary,"—are some of the transparent excuses now put forth in justification of the somersault committed by his Excellency's Government. Lord Reading says that before the Press Act Committee reported his Government "had foreseen the necessity of continuing to Princes in another form the protection they would lose if the Press Act were repealed," but the Committee having reported that the evidence was insufficient to establish the practical necessity for this protection, the Government of India, says the despatch, accepted the recommendations of the Committee, including the finding above mentioned. Why did the Government do so and why did they not openly declare in the Assembly at the time of the repeal of the Press Act the views which are now disclosed in the despatch, that "the case for the Princes was not put before the Committee in complete form" and that the finding of the Committee was one-sided? Did Sir William Vincent keep silent on the subject because the role of the enlightened democrat which he chose to assume on the occasion on behalf of the Government would have been spoiled by the disclosure of the hidden intentions as to the future? Lord Reading's despatch refers to the accumulation of further evidence as to the Press attacks on princes, but neither in the despatch nor in the official speeches made in both the Houses do we find any convincing case made out for special protection to princes. On the other hand, all that is apparent is the mysterious pressure brought to bear behind scenes on the not unwilling Government to prop up autocracy in the States. The weak-kneed Mr. Montagu also tamely acquiesced in the suggestion emanating from Simla and then the stage-managing of the tableau of the Princes' Chamber was an easy enough affair. By the way, it would be pertinent to enquire who the "half a dozen" princes are who, when consulted, preferred not to ask for protection. Will the Government of India make public their names and the nature of the views they have expressed? Parliament is shortly to discuss the Act. India, though indifferent to the result, will watch with interest how the Labour Party acquits itself in the debate.

The French threat.

In view of the reported threat of France to occupy two-thirds of the Ruhr districts, the following from the London "Outlook" will be read with interest:—

"M. Poincare sent M. Dariac to the Rhine Province to report on the 'economic and industrial situation.' That there was much more than this behind M. Dariac's mission was apparent from the first, and the 'Manchester Guardian' on Thursday published the full text of his report to the French President. This report, read in the light of the fact that France stands pledged to evacuate the Rhineland when Reparations are paid, indicates clearly that a disguised annexation is planned. The report indulges in such plain-speaking that it can hardly have been intended for publication, and it has not been published in France. The Rhine Province, it urges, must be set up as an 'autonomous' State under French and Belgian protection. There is nothing new in this. But M. Dariac goes further. He would collect the indemnity, through the French hold on the Rhine. The French, he says, must keep in their hands the Rhine industries—'we cannot dream of abandoning this pledge'—and he argues that since the German State cannot pay its debt, the German industrialists must be made to pay it instead, and can be coerced 'by suitable pressure.' 'We can cut them in two . . . and utterly disorganise their industry. . . . So long as we maintain our present position on the Rhine we shall constitute a constant menace for the ten or twelve masters . . . of Germany.' It will be interesting to see whether M. Poincare adopts this policy. There is hope that he is beginning to see that everyone outside his country is tired of watching France avowedly trying to constitute herself a 'constant menace' to Germany, and, through Germany, to the rest of the world."

"Oriental Menace."

Paul Hanna, writing in the Chicago Labour paper, "The New Majority", makes some pertinent comments on the present Near East situation. He says:—

"Turkey, Russia, China and the Far East generally, uniting to destroy Western civilization, is a 'conspiracy' that Washington officials were about to discover and share with the common people when Mustapha Kemal Pasha spoiled the programme by agreeing to an armistice with the British.

The great plot of the Asiatics to down the white man will still be revived and staged at great expense, however, unless the Turk agrees at Mudania to sign away a big slice of his victory over the Greeks. The horror stuff is all in shape and ready for release in the daily papers.

Chemical warfare experts had a great supply of new and more deadly gases ready for use in Europe when the armistice came in 1918, and the disappointment caused among those belligerent scientists by the order to stop firing is now a familiar story. An equal measure of chagrin is said to exist among the propagandists of an 'oriental menace', whose finely captioned newspaper gas is kept under cork for the time being by the Mudania Conference.

Inquiries made here among those who know the facts show that the big Western powers really do not want war—if they can get what they covet without war. They are all in debt up to the eyes from the last war, and there were enough rebellions, actual and threatened, during the years 1919-20 to make both politicians and financiers dread the social consequences of another resort to arms on a large scale. Whether the Dardanelles waterway shall be open to all vessels for commercial purposes, or controlled by some one power, will be a principal theme for open discussion at the Mudania and subsequent conferences. But the oil, mineral and other commercial factors which lie behind the famous waterway and have brought the world to the edge of a fresh war will not figure so much in the open.

In addition to its humanitarian interest in the Christian missionaries in Asia Minor, the Government of the United States has two points of special contact with the Turkish crisis. One is the demand of our oil and other investors for a share in natural resources of the Near East, another is the need to oppose Kemal Pasha in order to keep a check against Russia."

Obstacle to Cooperation.

At the St. Andrews Day dinner at Calcutta Lord Lytton sought to allay the alarm felt by the Co-operators regarding the fate of the Reforms in the Conservative regime. He said the fear that the new Secretary of State or change of Government in England might endanger the successful evolution of reforms was entirely groundless. "To undo the Act of 1919," he said, "would be an act of revolutionaries. The new Government in England is Conservative Government and conservatives are not revolutionaries." But Conservatives, if they are not exactly revolutionaries, can be reactionaries of the worst type and they may succeed in tinkering the reforms to such an extent as to make them unrecognisable at the end of the period of "probation." An Under-Secretaryship of State and a Governorship were thrown at first as sops to the clamour of the supporters of the "Reforms" and now these sops have served their end, we see no more Indians being exalted to such high posts. Similar has been the case with several other glittering baubles dangled before the eyes of Cooperators. Of what avail is Lord Lytton's assurance that the Conservatives mean no harm when reactionary counsels have been steadily gaining ascendancy at Whitehall and Delhi ever since the dismissal of Mr. Montagu? Lord Lytton proceeded to refer, in somewhat guarded terms, to the Non-Cooperators, who are holding aloof from the Councils, and declared that "though we need them and want their cooperation, we can do without them if need be and with or without their help we will serve to the best of our ability the interests of the land we live in." Non-Cooperators are not holding aloof from pure "cussedness" and we may assure his lordship that they are as anxious to cooperate as he himself and others who wish to serve the best interests of India, but the "Cooperation" they will agree to must be on a footing of equality and not as between a master and a servant. For decades Irishmen were beguiled by British statesmen with platitudinous sentiments similar to those Lord Lytton uttered at St. Andrews Dinner, but so long as these sentiments were not translated into action, they could not secure the cooperation of the Irish. To-day the Irish Nationalist cooperates with the Englishman because both esteem each other as equals. Let Englishmen in India and England give up the pretence of being the sole arbiters of the destinies of India and they will not have to bemoan the mistrust of Indians towards them.

Will Lord Reading Go?

The "Saturday Review" of November 4 writes:—

"In our issue of October 21 we stated that we understood Lord Reading was coming home. Two or three days later some of our London contemporaries made use of this statement, without acknowledgment, but embroidered it by suggesting that Lord Reading's return to this country was due to ill-health. This was not exactly the information of which we were possessed. Next the papers of India took up the tale, and considered it in all its aspects, according to their fancy. Then came 'authoritative' denials of the news—Lord Reading was not returning home. All we have to do in this matter is to reiterate our statement, as we have good reason to believe that it is correct."

EGYPTIAN MINISTRY

TEWFIK BECOMES PREMIER.

KING FOUD MAKES UP WITH NATIONALISTS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Nov. 30.

Cairo.—The cabinet has been re-formed under the premiership of Tewfix Nessim, who is a man of moderate views and who supports the King.

LONDON, Dec. 1

Cairo.—The New Egyptian Cabinet includes Tewfik as Premier and Minister of the Interior; Ismail Sidky, Minister of Public Works; Ahmed Zulfigar, Minister of Justice; Ibrahim Yehyeh, Minister of Education; Mahmud Fakhry, Minister for Foreign Affairs; and Mohamed Ibrahim. A manifesto has been issued by the Nationalist delegation which impugns the Sarwat Ministry and unprecedentedly concludes "Long live the King." Another new departure concerns the invitation to two members of the Natonalist delegation to attend the King's mid-day prayers.

THE GREEK EXECUTIONS.

CHARGE AGAINST BRITISH MINISTERS

LONDON, Nov. 30.

In the House of Commons, in the course of the discussion on the Greek executions, it was suggested, that letters of British Ministers existed proving that the British Government gave encouragement to the campaign of the executed ministers.

ACTUATED BY CANONS OF CIVILIZATION.

DELHI, Dec., 1.

Answering a question in the Commons today Mr. Bonar Law said that the British Government urged Greek Government not to pursue the execution of ex-Ministers and warned them, that if this step was taken the British representative would be withdrawn from Athens. In taking this action the British Government were actuated by the general consideration that it was contrary to the practice of civilised Governments to put to death outgoing Ministers on account of the failure of their policy. (B. O. W.)

PONTIFICAL COMMENDATION OF BRITISH ACTION.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Rome.—The official organ of the Vatican terms Britain's action in severing relations with Greece an act of noble pride which meets with the unanimous consent of the conscience of all nations.

ITALY SECONDS BRITAIN.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Rome.—In the course of a speech befor the Cabinet yesterday, Sgr. Mussolini said that directly he heard of the executions of the Greek ex-Ministers, he instructed the Italian representative in Athens not to recognise the new Govenment and he reserved the right to recall him. The Italian Minister did everything possible to prevent the executions, but, while Italy and Britain acted one way, France saw fit to act in another.

VENIZELOS APPROVES THE EXECUTIONS.

WILL HE BE EXCLUDED FROM THE CONFERENCE ?

LONDON, Nov. 30.

A Lausanne message states that M. Venizelos throughout resisted the British suggestions that he should intervene in Athens to prevent the executions, which he considered were justified. He absented himself from the Conference yesterday because the executions adversely affected the prospects of Greece at the Conference. The question of his resignation from the Conference has not yet been decided but if it comes about, it will have nothing to do with the executions.

ARREST OF 3 GREEK GENERALS.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

Athens.—Generals Papoulos, Dousmanis and Valettas have been arrested.

BRITISH EMPIRE EXHIBITION.

DELHI, Dec. 1.

Preparations for the British Empire Exhibition to be held London 1923 are advancing rapidly. A site has been secured and good progress with buildings to accommodate the exhibits which will bear testimony to the resources of the Empire is being made. All the Dominions are participating. The interest of the overseas Governments has been awakened largely as a result of the efforts of a special mission headed by Major Belcher, which returns to England tomorrow after travelling over 40,000 miles. The sole object of the Exhibition is development in the Imperial trade and delivered about 350 speeches, indicated that the overseas public would support the movement with enthusiasm and with determination to make it a success.—B. WONDERS OF ANCIENT THEBES.

3,000 YEAR OLD RELICS DISCOVERED.

SENSATIONAL CONTRIBUTION TO EGYPTOLOGY.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

DELHI, Dec. 1.

Probably the most sensational Egyptological discovery of the present century has been made by Lord Carnarvon and the distinguished excavator Mr. Howard Carter on the site of ancient Thebes. The excavations had been conducted systematically for 16 years, when Mr. Carter recently came across a hitherto unnoticed chamber below the Tomb of Rameses VI. In the presence of Lord Carnarvon and others, what proved to be a royal tomb over three thousand years old was opened and, says the "Times" Cairo correspondent, it revealed an amazing spectacle. There were gilt couches inlaid with ivory and precious stones, innumerable boxes inlaid and painted with hunting scenes, a throne of wonderful design, a chair incrusted with precious stones and adorned with royal portraits, bifumigated statues of the King, chariots, maces, footstool, alabaster vases and quantities of trussed duck, and haunches of venison, left according to the ancient custom as provision for the great dead. Beyond the first chamber lay another chamber, crowded with a confusion of gold beds, boxes and alabaster vase, and beyond this again lies another chamber which may prove to be the actual tomb of the king, whose funeral relics lie in bewildering profusion in the first two rooms. The full extent of the discovery is not yet known, and the " cataloguing and examining of the relics will be a task upon which the rolls papyri, found in one of the boxes will, perhaps, throw some light. It appears that the tomb is that of Tutankhamen of the eighteenth dynasty who reigned in Telelamarna and Thebes from 1358 to 1350, B. C.—(B. O. W.).

GROPING FOR EQUILIBRIUM.

ALLIES SUFFERING FROM CONFERENCE MANIA.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The meeting of the British, French, Italian and Belgian Premiers with a view to reaching a common policy with regard to the impending Brussels Reparations Conference, has been fixed to be held in London on December 9th. The discussion will centre round the new reparations proposals of France and inter-Allied war debts. The French papers declare that the Brussels Conference must be cancelled, if the Allies do not reach a preliminary agreement.

POINCARE'S READINESS.

DELHI, Dec. 1.

It is expected that the Premiers of Great Britain, France, Italy and Belgium will meet in London, on the 9th and 10th December for discussing for a preliminary Conference prior to the Brussel's Conference on Reparations and interallied debts. M. Poincare has already notified his readiness to come to London at the end of the next week and Mr. Bonar Law has telegraphed Sgr. Mussolini and M. Theunis asking if the date proposed was convenient to them. (B. O. W.)

CLASH BETWEEN GERMAN AND ALLIED OFFICIALS.

DELHI, Dec. 1.

The officers of the Inter-Allied Control Commission which replaced the Military Guarantee Committee have been obstructed in their work by German officials on several occasions, the most serious cases being at Stettin last July and at Passau in October and the other day at Ingoldstadt. The matter has been considered by the Council of Ambassadors and while the German Government after much delay has given satisfaction in regard to the Stettin indident, the same cannot be said in regard to the other two incidents, which the Allies regard as of considerable gravity. It is obviously unlikely that the Allied military control in Germany will be relaxed while such episodes are allowed to occur.—(B.O.W.)

SCRAPPING WARSHIPS.

UNITED STATES' REJOINDER.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

Washington.—The State Department points out that so far as the United States Government are aware, no country, signatory to the Washington Treaty has begun the scrapping of warships, and declares that the United States will have no authority to comply with the terms of the Treaty beyond suspending the construction of new ships.

U.S.A. SHIPS SUBSIDY BILL.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

New York.—The small majority, by which the Ships Subsidy Bill was passed by the House of Representatives, reflects the strength of opposition throughout the country to the measure ardently supported by President Harding of which the object is the promotion and developmen of the mercantile marine by private interests, instead of the continuance of the Government system directed by the United States Shipping Board.

The Shipping Board was created in war time, and incurred heavy losses over operating vessels. The Bill was only passed after a clause, providing for the allocation of £25,000,000 anually for ten years derived from ten per cent. of the Customs receipts, was amended making the vote purely an annual one. It is pointed out that the new limitation is likely to prejudice shipping firms against embarking on a new enterprise when Government aid is dependent on the whim of future Congresses.

TRUMP CARD OF REPARATIONS.

SELF-INTEREST DWARFS FRANCE'S MORAL SENSE.

CURZON WINS OVER GENERAL WEYGAND.

ENGLAND CREATES DIVERSION AGAINST FRANCE.

(From our Special Correspondent at the Peace Conference.)

LAUNANNE, Nov. 30, 6-45 p.m.

I have already mentioned that in a Sub-Committee sitting General Weygand had supported the Turkish technical delegate on the question of the demilitarisation of the islands adjoining the Anatolian coast. Now in the meeting of the territorial and military Sub-Committee presided over by Marquess Curzon, the General had expressed a contrary opinion. This sudden change could only have taken place as the result of political pressure.

BRITISH REPRESENTATIVE DOMINATES FRENCH DELEGATION.

To all appearance the French delegation was at the moment dominated by the British representative. Frenchman in touch with official circles assert that it is impossible to adopt offically an attitude likely to compromise Franco-Bhitish relations. France could not sacrifice her alliance with England for the sake of Turkish friendship, but she was endeavouring to conciliate the interests of the two countries by playing the role of an intermediary behind the scenes.

ENGLAND EXPLOITS GERMAN BOGEY

On the other hand England sought to create a diversion by raising the German bogy against France in order to have complete liberty of action or a free hand in the Orient. I learn that the new Chancellor, Herr Cuno, having declared that the Reich could not very well pay in cash and goods for at least ten years more. The French Government is going to take steps for the occupation of the Ruhr. district. Once she takes the first step in this direction, it will be impossible for France to influence the Lausanne Conference in favour of Turkey even if she had before decided to do so.

FRESH KNOCKS AT CONFERENCE.

DEMAND FOR ABOLITION OF ZIONISM.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Lausanne.—Numbers of the delegates to the Conference are being increased steadily Dr. Benes, on a flying visit, has applied for admission of Czecho Slovakia to the Conference. The representatives of Holland, Syria, Palestine and Armenia have arrived. The Syria and Palestine delegates have presented a memorial to the President of the Conference, claiming Palestine for the Arabs and the abolition of Zionism.

TURKISH ANTI-NATIONALISTS.

LONDON, Dec. 1

Cairo.—The ex-Grand-Vizier and the Sheikh-ul-Islam, who fled from Constantinople, accompany Emir Abdullah to Mecca.

RUSSO-PERSIAN RELATIONS.

LONDON, Dec., 1.

Tehran.—There is a complete deadlock in the commercial negotiations between the Persian Government and Russia. The Press strongly criticise the Russian Government's unfriendly attitude in creating difficulties for Persian merchants by raising the tariff on Persian commodities.

END OF POLICE STRIKE.

The Police strike ended last night, arrangements having been made for the payment of the arrears of wages. Many shops were broken into by thieves during the strike.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

LABOUR PARTY'S ATTACK ON GOVERNMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The resumed debate on the Address in the House of Commons began with the Opposition amendment, regretting that in face of the unexampled unemployment, there was no proposal for the full recognition of what was entirely a national obligation or indication of any change to enable European customers to re-buy English goods and so restore international trade and stabilise international exchange. Mr. Clynes, submitting the resolution as outlined above, said he in no way wanted to belittle Empire trade, but he considered it comparatively a secondary consideration when placed alongside Britain's great world trade. (Ministerial cries of "No.") At the best by developing trade with the white peoples of the Empire they would not be able to do business with more than 15 to 20 million people. Against this they could trade with three or four hundred million people outside the Empire.

GOVERNMENT'S SCHEMES OF RELIEF.

Sir Montagu Barlow outlined the efforts to relieve the unemployed in the past two years, including the 1787 relief schemes and utility undertakings, involving thirty millions sterling. He announced that the Cabinet would bring up fresh proposals as they became necessary. In the meantime they intended to devote £170,000 to supplementing the unspent balance of the sums previously voted for the reconstruction of roads, etc., and grant further £100,000 for afforestation. They also were granting a million sterling for maintenance and repairs in connection with the Post Office. The railways had undertaken to expedite the programme including a far-reaching scheme of electrification by the Southern group.

An outlay of ten millions was also involved in the electricity supply schemes including big water power works on the River Tay.

NEXT IMPERIAL CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

In the House of Commons, replying to Col. Wedgwood, the Premier said that he never heard it suggested by any of the Dominions' representatives that there was any desire to change the title of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, but if such a desire was felt, it would doubtless be raised at the Imperial Conference. In reply to a further question from Col. Wedgewood, the Premier hoped it would be found generally convenient to hold a meeting of the Imperial Conference in 1923. Invitations had not yet been issued and he thought that the date must partly depend upon whether it was decided to hold an Imperial Economic Conference, distinct from and before the Imperial Conference. The Irish Free State would be invited in due course.

RALLYING INDIAN MODERATES.

BAIT THAT WILL NOT CATCH.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Dec., 1.

Reuter is informed that while satisfaction is expressed in the official circles at the failure of the Non-Co-operation movement in India, it is not by any means supposed that the agitation has disappeared

Fear has been expressed in India that the advent of the Conservative Government in England will adversely affect the carrying out of the Reforms, but this idea is scouted in England. It is asserted on good authority that there is not the slightest fear on such score. Opinion of the House of Commons which represents the opinion of England (1) is believed without hesitation to lie in the direction of giving Indians all opportunities they possess of working out their own destiny under the Reform Act. At the same time, hope is expressed that goodwill between the two countries will be revived to its pristine strength.

EXPLOITING PRINCE'S BOYCOTT.

It is recalled that trustworthy opinion in England experienced considerable indignation at the treatment accorded to the Prince of Wales by a section of Indians, not only as an affront to the Throne, but also to the British people which caused many in England to have an exaggerated view of the position in India to the dis advantage of the latter.

BAIT TO MODERATES.

With the new Parliament in England, it is thought that the Moderates in India will probably seize the opportunity to unite and to create a different impression in the minds of the British public. It is believed that such action would find substantial echo in the help, sympathy and encouragement of the latter towards India in the path (which) that the country is treading. It must be noted that the new Parliament contains a larger section of men specially interests in India.

It is reported that Mr. Saklatvala, who was elected as a Labourite, is in difficulties with his leaders as a result of his moving the rejection of the Irish Bill without authority.

WORLD'S NEW ECONOMIC CENTRE.

FRANCE TURNS HER EYES TO THE PACIFIC.

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Paris.—In the Chamber yesterday, reporting the Colonial estimates, M. Archibaud expressed the opinion that the Pacific had become the economic centre of the world since the Washington Conference and France must employ a secondary role to Britain, the United States and Japan. Therefore, it was necessary that France should create a High Commissionership in the Pacific.

BRITAIN AND U. S.

SPLIT OVER MIDDLE EAST.

TURK'S DIPLOMATIC VICTORY

BRITAIN SEEKS PRIVATE AGREEMENT WITH TURKEY.

(SPECIAL CABLE TO "THE CHRONICLE.")

FROM FELIX VALYI.

PARIS, Nov. 30.

The "Chicago Tribune" states to-day authoritatively that the United States of America and Britain are split over the open-door principle in the Middle East. The United States of America insists on equal participation, not only in Turkey but also in the mandated territories. The British demand special rights and privileges because of the blood and treasure they have expended.

The "Daily Mail" asks as the result of investigations of Sir Percival Phillips in Baghdad the withdrawal of Britain from all Mesopotamia, holding only Basra District, which is the one solvent province and would ensure protection of oil-fields in Western Persia. Tax-collecting by bomb is not needed there. The British seek to conclude direct private agreement with Turkey.

ISMET INSISTS ON OPEN DOOR.

Ismet Pasha rejected for the present British private offers and, insists upon the admission of America and the open door principle. Asking the Ambassador, Mr. Child, if America is ready to negotiate a separate treaty with Angora, he replied that America would not interfere with the Lausanne Conference. This means that America prefers to await the Lausanne issue before taking any definite engagement.

The Americans are understood to be preparing another statement of great importance. The American standpoint as shown in Mr. Hughes's note concerning the Capitulations and minorities cannot satisfy Turkey. However, do not forget that Turkey won a diplomatic victory by the American intervention. The economic Capitulations are to be entirely waived.

RECOGNITION OF TURKISH SOVEREIGNTY.

This involves a complete recognition of the Turkish sovereignty, states the "New York Herald", never before conceded by the Western Powers. European diplomacy hopes only that Angora would make some concessions concerning the judicial Capitulations, but Turkey must first get tabula rasa of all foreign privileges. It is understood that she will, if convenient to her, interest and credit, engage friendly-disposed and well-chosen foreign techniciens and experts for reform schemes in economical and judicial matters. Such offer depends previously on the acceptance, by Europe and America, of full Turkish sovereignty without any kind of control. No foreign Governments, no embassies, no international commissions are to be authorised to design such exports for Turkey. She herself will choose from among her sincere and good firends in Europe or in America, without any foreign Governmental interference the men who may enter into Turkish service for the benefit of Asia Minor.

NEED OF A SPECIAL CONFERENCE.

I may add that the Lausanne Conference should confine itself to decide the end of all foreign privileges, proclaiming full independence of Turkey and absolute equality for her in international law. The best way to find a practical solution of the pending economic and financial problems involved in Eastern matters should be the elimination of all Balkanic methods, and conspiracies. The organisation of a special Conference of experts between London and Angora, Washington and Angora, Paris and Angora, on a purely business line would probably succeed. In finishing as soon as possible the Lausanne Conference by the proclamation of new principles for Turkey and entering into business negotiations on the Urquhart line, European diplomacy can save time and peace.

MURDER TRAIL IN DUBLIN.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S INACTION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Nov. 30.

The subject of British representations to prevent the Greek executions were again raised in the House of Commons to-day when Mr. Bonar Law, after replying that the Government had not taken a similar step in the case of Mr. Erskine Childers, stated that the Government had withdrawn the representative from Greece because they were actuated by the general consideration that it was contrary to the practice of civilised Governments to put to death retiring ministers on account of the failure of their policy (loud laughter in which Mr. Lloyd George and other ex-Ministers joined). The Premier defended Government's isolated action against the criticism of Mr. Austen Chamberlain.

FLIMSY REASONS.

The reasons of the executions in Dublin to-day are that one man was found in possession of a revolver and two in possession of bombs.

SECRECY OF MILITARY COURTS ATTACKED.

The Labour representatives and others strongly attacked the secrecy of the military courts in the Provisional Parliament to-day. The Government spokesman ridiculed the suggestion that the recent executions were due to the mere possession of arms and Mr. Mulcahy finally stated that the three men executed to-day were implicated in a plot to blow up Oriel House at Quom and kill evrybody inside and outside except the assailants and their friends.

THREE DUBLIN MEN EXECUTED.

The Army Headquarters, Dublin, to-day announced the execution of three Dublin men. They were executed in the morning.

THE KHALIFA.

OUDH KHILAFAT CONFERENCE'S APPROVAL.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

FYZABAD CITY, Nov. 30.

The Third Oudh Khilafat Conference opened last night under the presidentship of Maulana Abdul Majid Badauni. Among the distinguished visitors are Bi Amman Begum Mohamed Ali, Maulana Azad Subhani and Mrs. Sarojini Naidu. Maulvi Moinuddin, Chairman, Reception Committee, in his speech, urged perseverance and strong cohesion in Swaraj and Khilafat work. The President in the course of a learned and forceful address, congratulated Oudh on the sufferings and the courage and patriotism of its workers. He emphasized the need of organization, and deprecated the fissiparous proposal of some members of the C. D. Committee favouring entry into the Councils. He pointed out that it was useless contesting the elections, and he doubted whether mere contest would be politically useful. Referring to the Lausanne Conference, he said that the problem of Arabia was still to be solved. Religiously, even the Khalifa had no right, he said, to compromise on the Arabian question. A satisfactory solution of the question rested with the Indian Mussalmans who must be prepared for further sacrifice. He justified the present Khalifa's election and asked the audience to show their assent to the election, which the Conference did most enthusiastically. In concluding, the President congratulated the Central Khilafat Committee on the fruits of its strenuous work in the cause of the Khilafat, and also commended the work of the Oudh Khilafat workers. He closed his speech with a prayer for the long life and success of the Khalifa, to which the whole audience said "ameen," standing.

AKOLA MUSLIMS' DEMAND

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

AKOLA, Dec. 1.

Under the auspices of the Akola Khilafat Committee a mass meeting was held on the 30th November, Hakim Syed Mir presiding. The following resolutions were passed unanimously.

This meeting puts its complete confidence in Mr. Chotani and appreciates his services in the cause of Islam.

This meeting requests the Central Khilafat Committee that at the present juncture it should encourage the Turkish delegates at Lausanne in every possible way and that they should be assured of the support of united India.

ALLEGIANCE TO THE KHALIFA.

The citizens of Akola congratulate the present Sultan. Khilafat-ul-Musiimeen Abdul Majid Effendi on his accession to the throne and assuring him of their full allegiance, place their complete faith in all the doings of the Angora Government.

The meeting declares Western Thrace to be Turkish and hopes that Ismet Pasha will endeavour his best to secure a plebiscite; further the Allies, especially the British should let the Turks control the Dardandiles and agree to abolish all the capitulations and no discussion should be raised as regards Turkish Asiatic frontiers and the whole of Jaziral-ul-Arab, including Syria, Iraq and Palestine must remain directly under Turkish suzerainty and the status quo Ante bellum should be maintained. This meeting welcomes the idea of the brave Egyptians desiring to remain under the banner of the Khalifat and thinks this to be a good omen for the unity of Islam.

ARYAN IDEAL.

VISION OF INDIA'S HISTORY.

DR. TAGORE'S LECTURE.

Dr. Rabindranath Tagore delivered a public lecture on Friday evening on the "Vision of India's History" at the Excelsior Theatre Sir N. G. Chandavarkar presiding. There was a large gathering of ladies and gentlemen representing all communities who evinced a great interest in the lecture.

POET'S LECTURE.

The Poet began his lecture by describing the great practical importance of obtaining a true perspective of history. When such a perspective was obtained it brought with it an understanding of the sub-conscious tendencies of a people and thus made it possible for man to continue his advance in the direction of the inherent purpose of the race. The present lecture represented an endeavour to obtain a true perspective of Indian History. But the way at first seemed obscure owing to a great deal of legendary matter, which needed sifting in order to see clearly its trend and meaning. Behind the surface of these legendary accounts, which presented many contradictions and difficulties of interpretation, as yet unresolved, there could be traced a conflict between the two sections of the same race of invaders, called the Aryans. These were the Brahmins and the Kshatriyas. But behind these two communities in the background there was evidence of a long conflict of colour. The race problem was felt in India in all its intensity, and the solution of this problem became from the very first the supreme spiritual endeavour of the Aryan people. In the course of this striving after a unity which should comprehend differences of race, there was developed an elaborate social caste system, on the one hand,—keeping men apart,—and a passionate desire, on the other, to find some inner means of uniting races and peoples. It is interesting to note, that while the names of those who fought against the non-Aryans and were victorious in destruction have been forgotten, the memory of those who strove for unity and peace have been remembered. The hero, Rama, who sought to reconcile the Aryan and non-Aryan races is to-day, in India, worshipped by milions of people as an incarnation of God Himself.

KSHATRIYA IDEALS.

As the ages advance, we find in Indian History a gradual divergence taking place, within Aryan society itself, between the Brahmins and the Kshatriyas. The Brahmin, who preserved the religious tradition of the ancents naturally came to represent the conservative force. The Kshatriya, who was ever pressing forward and civilising new areas of conquest, became the progressive force. The moral traditions of the Brahmins were apt to become settled and established, while the Kshatriya forces were ever eager to set out on new moral adventures. As they overcame the obstacles of nature and environment, one by one, they developed more and more in their life the principles of inclusion and expansion. It is interesting to find from legendary history what a hold their leaders obtained, while so doing, over the popular mind. With the one exceptiin of Parasurama, all the heroes of ancient India, who became avatars, were of Kshtriya origin and represented the progressive Kshatriya ideals.

The Poet then went in to explain in detail his theme by giving his interpretations of the events which lay behind the two great epics of India, the Mahabharata and the Ramayana. He dealt at some length with the story of Rama and Sita and criticised some of the anecdotes, which he himself regarded as later additions to the original narrative obscuring its meaning and purpose. The true meaning was to be found in the treatment of the aboriginal races by the Aryan king and hero, Rama. Instead of destroying or trouble came himself to the field and exterminating them, as had so frequently happened in the history of the West, Rama treated them as allies and helpers in his great work of spreading the Aryan civilisation southward. The whole story of the Ramayana refers to that great reconciliation of the races. The same result evidently followed from the early Buddhist movement. The Buddha himself was of Kshatriya origin.

But the conservative element, represented by the Brahmin community had its own great part also to play, which was vital for Indian society. There was the pathway of speculative and intellectual adventure, and of maintaining the divine truths, which had been intuitively recognised from the very first by the forest dwellers of ancient India and embodied in the Upanishads. While socially conservative, the Brahmins had always been intellectually and spiritually daring and radical.

The course of Indian History represents the inter-action of these two forces. When, what may be called, the Kshatriya force gains the ascendancy to the exclusion of the Brahmanic influence, there soon follows anarchy and disruption. When, what may be called the Brahmin forces gains the ascendancy to the exclusion of the Kshatriya influence, there soon follows decay and stagnation. But the pendulum has marvellously kept swinging backward and forward, and for this reason, Indian civilisation, though so old, has kept its perpetual youth.

Western critics very frequently did not recognise the immensity of the task which India had been called upon to accomplish in the harmonising of her different races. In Europe there had been, from very early times, a practical uniformity of race. Yet, even with this, there had been perpetual quarrels and bitternesses, which had culminated in the late European War. But India had been faced from the very first with the great problem, which was confronting the modern world, on the largest scale, to-day, namely the harmonising of racial differences and the bringing of unity out of apparent discord. If India has not succeeded finally in accomplishing this unity within her own borders, (as the problem of the depressed classes, which is still unsolved, clearly shows) yet her effort has been not altogether fruitless. It was fraught with lessons of great value to mankind in the age in which we were now living. For India had not simplified the problem by destructive methods, nor had she attempted a merely utilitarian and material solution. She had kept true to her spiritual idea, her faith in the Infinite; and the West would find, in the vast racial and spiritual problems with which she was now brought face to face, not only warning and direction, but also inspiration and encouragement, from a study of India's past accomplishments in her great heroic ages.

A vote of thanks to the chairman terminated the preceedings.

MR. DAS ON HIMSELF.

(From our Correspondent.)

CALCUTTA, Nov. 30.

At a public meeting held, last evening, in Mirzapur Park Deshbandhu Das who arrived at the meeting during the speech of Mr. Sashmal in course of his speech said "Mr. Stephenson's Council speech shewed whether this meeting is a pro-Government organisation. The "Times of India" called me an anarchist, and the Calcutta Anglo-Indian papers also do not show any favourable disposition towards me. The standard which I took up was never forsaken by me. I will carry it till the end of my life. In the very beginning of the movement I had some differences with Mahatmaji regarding the details of his programme. In Nagpur the differences were made up by mutual concession. From the very beginning I had objections regarding Council Boycott from without. In the Calcutta Resolution you will find the clause of Council Boycott, but in the Nagpur Resolution it was deleted. Elections were over by that time, and as the question had no practical value Mahatmaji and myself made up the matter between us by giving up the whole matter so I have not changed. I am what I was.

"Non-Co-operation is an organic whole. It cannot be taken in compartments. The country cannot be truly said to have non-cooperated. It is only preparing for Non-co-operation with the Government. If the Councils, Schools and Colleges and Law Courts are broken, does Swaraj come to us? We have got to rouse the people. Swarajya has infinite aspects Our efforts are to be extended on all sides. I do not want to speak to you about entry into Councils. For the present we want only to contest the elections. I do not believe in the non-violence of the Nyaysastra, or of the dictionary. I believe in that Non-Violent Non-Co-operation which the Congress has adopted. Obstruction in the Council does not go against the principle of the Congress. Sattvikata is only one aspect of life, but that is not all. Mahatmaji has said many times that Civil Disobedience is not Non-Co-operation. That is only Passive resistance. We shall snatch Swarajya by the sheer moral force of a newly awakened nationhood. I am for construction. Charkha is good, but it has done very little upto now.

Speaking of his own evolution, Mr. Das said that his Vaishnava Dharma which sees the lila of the divine in history, taught him to join in the Nation's struggle for liberation. Hence he joined the Congress in 1917, and held up the truth. He was no believer in politics that came of false dealings. When he talked of the proletariat and the masses, he did not use those words, in the European sense. He wanted no class war out here. He wanted to construct the villages on the principle of Co-operation. That was his Swarajya. When to-morrow Europe will have toiled for and achieved that Swaraj, it may be, the eyes of his countrymen might be opened then. She never knew what mighty events might not come to pass before the year came round. It might be that events should so turn that the whole question might assume an altogether different aspect. The umbrella would be spread to that direction wherefrom came the rain or the rays of the sun

LORD INCHCAPE ON INDIAN AGITATION.

ST. ANDREWS DAY DINNER IN CALCUTTA.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, Nov. 30.

Speaking at Saint Andrew's Day Dinner at the Saturday Club to-night Lord Inchcape who proposed the toast of the "Viceroy and the Land we live in" made a reference to the Retrenchment Committee and expressed a hope that it would be able to make suggestions to reduce the expenditure and that India would get back to solvency before long. He recalled that it was nearly fifty years since he first came out to India and said that it was at that time there was no such thing as the racial question and Indians and Europeans were a happy family and so far as the Indian and European commercial communities were concerned they were a happy family. Still they had worked together for generations with mutual benefit and if his forecast was not incorrect, they would go on working happily till the end of time. The laudable aspirations of the Indian community for places in the Government hierarchy had been met and Indians were proving worthy of them. There might be hotheads who were impatient, but he was satisfied that the elders of the people would succeed in restraining the younger and more impetuous spirits and that the stability of the King's Government would be maintained. There had been a good deal of political unrest in India during the last few years as there had been all over the world, chiefly the work of agitators who were blindly desirous of upsetting the civilisation. Those agitators in India had failed but they had only to look to Russia to see the results of their teachings. He did not think the people of India were disposed for anything of that kind. Leaders were rightly anxious to have more say in the Government than they had, but he firmly believed they and the people of the country realised that their safety rested in the loyal adherence to the British Crown. He had no fears regarding the future of India. He and his partners were continuing to put any surplus profits into fresh enterprises and were not taking their capital out of the country. The Government had power to keep order and that order they meant to maintain.

Referring to the Retrenchment Committee, Lord Inchcape said: "I have been Commissioned to enquire into the cost of running the Government of India, I can only suppose I was commandeered because I happened to be a member of a similar committee at Home under the admirable chairmanship of Sir Eric Geddes. I wished he had been appointed Chairman instead of me. I did not like the prospect but I am bound to say, as far as I have gone, owing to the attitude of the departments, I feel satisfied the task of the Committee has been greatly lighted. The departments are showing every disposition to help and we are all working together in a most cordial and agreeable way and I am not without hope that the result of our labours will be to suggest practical measures for reducing the expenditure without interfering with efficiency."

Lord Inchcape referred to the communication from the European Association and assured it that what it said would be kept carefully before the Committee and hoped that a reply would be considered more satisfactory than the one which was sent from London by a certain noble Lord some eighteen months ago. Lord Inchcape continued that he had been asked why he did not leave expenditura alone and suggest increased taxation. His reply was that that was not what he came out for. He did not yet know if many offices in India were occupied by functionaries filling up antiquated forms which nobody, read functionaries who were fattening on the fruits of industry of the people. They certainly found that to be the case at Home. Britain was living on its capital and wells of productive enterprise were being dried up. What India like every other country had to do was to carry on the administration and defence as economically as possible and avoid all extravagance. If that was done India would come out alright, and he was statisfied that if wise counsels prevailed, as he was sure, they would, India could get back to solvency before long and not be compelled to borrow to meet the deficits.

INDIA AND PROTECTION.

Lord Inchcape proceeded to refer to the fiscal controversy stating that if he understood his Indian protectionist friends aright they wanted nothing to be imported into India. They wanted ships to come out empty and go home. He considered that could be a fatal mistake. Speaking with great diffidence he expressed the opinion that protection was not suited for India with its extremely poor population. It could only have the effect of raising the prices to the consumers of articles on which duties were levied, while benefit to revenue would be relatively far less than the amount taken from the public. He did not agree with the view that protection would only be required until industries had been established, maintaining that if an industry had been established under protection it would be impossible subsequently to remove duties and instead of reduiing or removing the tariff, the cry would be to have it raised because the tariff wall was being surmounted by other countries.

Lord Inchcape proceeded to refer to some of the changes which had taken place in India since he first arrived mentioning incidentally that whereas he received no allowance when he went to Simla to attend the meetings of the Legislative Council, the members now received two first class fares to Simla and back and subsistence allowance in Simla. He thought that if the same sense of economy had obtained throughout the country in the last few years as formerly prevailed he might not have been presan to-night.

CURRENCY.

Touching upon currency he alluded to the sale of Reverse Councils remarking that after selling many millions worth of government wisely shut up the shop. He would like to see the profit and loss account of that establishment.

Lord Inchcape concluded by paying a warm tribute to the Viceroy and Lady Reading saying that the Viceroy at great personal sacrifice responded to the call of his King and came to India at a critical time in the country's history—to a life not of dignified ease but of hard work. No man in tre world had greater responsibilities and Lord Reading was discharging them with single eye to the welfare of the country. This, Lord Inchcape thought, was recognised to the full by the Indian as well as the the European community while Lady Reading after nearly two years in India was working assiduously for every good object in better fettle than she had been for years at home.

AKALI AFFAIRS.

GURU-KA-BAGH PRISONERS.

(Associated Press.)

AMRITSAR, Nov. 30.

Sirdar Gopal Singh, a member of the Executive Committee of the Shiromani Gurudwara Prabhandak Committee, has been arrested in connection with the Akali movement.

The S.G.P.C. state that they are gratified to see that Mahants in increasing numbers are submitting to them. They report that Mahant Bishen Singh of Mehl Gurudwara near Jandiala, Amritsar District, has now made over to them his Gurudwara and property attached to it. They have, also, published a copy of the letter received from Mahant Harnam Singh and Mahant Kharak Singh of Bir Sahib Gurudwara in which they (the Mahants) stated that they wished to have the Committee's support and wanted to work under their authority.

The Parbandhak Committee complains that the Guru-ka-Babg prisoners are kept carelessly in jails. It reports that the Mahant of Mehl at Jandiala has also surrendered and handed over the Gurudwara.

Bhai Dyal Singh, Manager, the "Onkar Press," arrested a few days ago for printing certain posters for recruiting Akalis for jathas was discharged to-day from the Court for want of evidence.

A new communique of the "Udasin Mahamandal" complains of the usurpation of the rights of the Udasis at Gurukabagh Nankhanasahib and some other places. It asks the Government how long the Mahamandal could look on complacently and give away its rights to the high-handed methods of the new Akalis? The Mahamandal, also, finds that not only Mahant Sunderdass executed the lease of the Gurukabagh land but, also, received Rs. 1,000 in cash as a part payment and that the allegations against the Tahsildar of Amritsar in this connection are baseless.

ANGORA AEROPLAME FUND.

The following appeal has been issued by the Central Khilafat Committee:—

According to a resolution passed by the Central Khilafat Committee at Delhi in October last it was decided to appeal for collection of fund for sword and aeroplane to be presented to Ghazi Mustafa Kemal Pasha and the Turkish nation for their illustrious and memorable services in the heroic defence of the honour of Islam and integrity of the Khilafat. A deputation in due time is expected to proceed to Constantinople and Angora for tendering congratulations on behalf of the people of India and handing over the presents. The estimate of the cost of one aeroplane according to present information will be about three lakhs. United Provinces' Provincial Khilafat Committee has already promised to present one aeroplane while it is hoped that Bengal will not remain behind and will contribute towards the cost of another aeroplane. Bombay and Punjab are expected to follow suit while other Provincial Khilafat Committees should contribute as much towards this fund as possible. Collections in United Provinces and Bombay have already commenced and it confidently hoped that all these collections will be completed by the end of February according to the date fixed by the Khilafat Working Committee. Attention of all provincial organisations are invited to start collection at once.

DAYS OF REJOICINGS.

According to another resolution of the Central Khilafat Committee it is announced that Friday the eighth December should be observed by Muslims all over India as a day of rejoicings and prayer for the election of the new Khalifa Sultan Abdul Majeed Effindi 2. when he should be formally recognised as Khalifat-ul-Muslimeen by passing resolutions to that effect in mosques after Juma prayers or in meetings held for this purpose especially paying homage and fealty to his person and throne with prayers for his long life and prosperity and the success of the Turkish nation at the Lausanne Conference. Copies of the resolutions to be duly forwarded to the Central Khilafat Committee. Collections for Angora fund should also be made on this occasion. National papers are requested to give in their columns daily the announcement of observing Friday the eighth December for formal recognition of the new Khalif throughout India besides inviting attention of the public for collection of Angora Aeroplane fund.

INDIAN HIGH COMMISSIONERSHIP.

DELHI MERCHANTS ASK FOR APPOINTMENT OF INDIAN

(From our Correspondent.)

DELHI, Nov. 30.

The Delhi Hindustani Mercantile Association has passed a resolution strongly supporting the suggestion of the Indian Merchants' Chamber and Bureau of Bombay and other associations that an Indian be appointed to the high commissionership, in the vacancy created by death of Sir William Meyer.

MR. SASTRI IN DELHI.

IMPERIAL MISSIONER'S FAILURE.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

DELHI, Nov. 30.

Rt. Hon. V. S. Shrinivasa Sastri who arrived here on Monday night from Bombay is indeed the idol of the hour in the semi-official circles of the imperial capital I understand he is now engaged in preparing a report of his Dominion tour to be shortly submitted to the Government India. But as he has himself admitted more than once since his return the failure of his noble mission to the colonies, the public do not attach any importance nor look forward with any interest to his report, which may or may not be made available to the public. It is, however, presumed that he will emphasise in his report the change in the angle of vision of the colonial Governments which he claims to have brought about by his personal exchange of views with the authorities and contact with the people there.

A COSTLY PLEASURE-TRIP.

Some critics of his, and there are a good many of them in Delhi, doubt if the small moral success which he claims to have achieved is worth sixty thousand rupees which a rather over generous Assembly granted without a murmur or whisper, at a time when they were faced with a huge financial crisis and when the prospects of the success of a tour to the Dominions were very doubtful. The money has been spent and now Mr. Sastri confidently assures the Indian public in return the prospective birth of a ridiculous mouse out of his labours. The infructuous result of Mr. Sastri's mission will, it is hoped, serve a lesson to the members of the Assembly and prepare them to be more cautious in granting money towards objects, the probable utility of which has not been fully examined. The failure of Mr. Sastri is not entirely his. It is attributed to the failure of the legislators to think rightly before granting the sum demanded by Mr. Hullah. I gather that Mr. Sastri may attempt to try his luck in South Africa if the seeds that he has now sown in Australia and other countries begin to take root. But it is necessary to warn the custodians of public finance as Sir Malcolm Hailey would style the legislators, against taking another rash step—though it must be admitted the cause is noble, just and deserving of sympathy and support. Mr. Sastri is now looking forward to an interview with the Viceroy and of course some luncheons and dinners before leaving for Agra en route to South India.

THE INCHCAPE 'AXE'.

The Inchcape Committee will reassemble in Delhi on the 5th of January. Meanwhile, the various departments in the Government of India are engaged in preparing answers to the list of questions put to them. There is talk of retrenchment in every department, but for real and sound economy Government and the Committee must look to the frontier. No doubt the situation in the frontier is not yet quiet, but the conditions are not such as to require so much expenditure. The advisability of continuing the forward policy in that inhospitable part of the country is seriously questioned by the non-officials, who would like the Inchcape Committee to make a tour in the frontier before coming to a final decision on the reports of Sir William Vincent, Sir Muhamad Shafi and the Commander-in-Chief, who all made a close inspection of the districts there with a view to suggest possible economy. There seems to be a genuine anxiety and effort on the part of Government to tide over the present financial crisis and the Inchcape Committee on the whole appear to proceed with their investigation on carefully chalked out lines. It is too early to predict how and in what directions their axe will fall and which branch or branches will be lopped off. Unfortunately the Committee's work is conducted in camera and this makes prediction all the more difficult. It can, however, be expected that the coming budget will bear traces of the strokes of the Inchcape axe in several items.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAMME.

The cold weather session of the Indian Legislature commences on the 15th January for the Lower House and on the 24th for the Upper House. The agenda of business will be very heavy what with the number of controversial resolutions and a crowded legislative programme, including the bills to amend the Criminal Procedure Code and the law relating to workmen's compensation. The controversy about the alleged unnecessary interference of Whitehall will be renewed by Mr. Harchandrai Vishandas, who will ask for publication of the correspondence that has passed between the Government of India and the Secretary of State on Mr. Mazumdar's resolution for further reforms adopted by the Legislative Assembly, as also papers relating to reports of the Army Requirements Committte, the Racial Distinctions Committee and the Indianisation of the army. There are three or four resolutions urging the appointment of an Indian to the Indian High Commissionership in London in the vacancy created by the death of Sir Wiliam Meyer. Mr. Manmohandas Ramjee, who was a member of the Braithwaite Committee will recommend that a beginning be made in the Indianisation of the military services. All vacancies in future of assistant directors and officers below that rank in the same service be filled in by appointing Indians only till a limit of thirty per cent. is

IMPOTENCY OF REFORMED COUNCILS.

WHITEHALL'S REACTIONARY SM.

(From our Correspondent.)

DELHI, Nov. 30.

The cold weather session of the Indian Legislature will certainly disclose the inner working of the Reforms machinery at Whitehall. The present Secretary of State has already filled up two important places on the India Council with superannuated reactionaries although it was definitely recommended by the authors of the Joint Committee report that the India Council should possess "a continuous flow of fresh experience from India." Sir Charles Bayley who has just been re-appointed on the Council left India about a decade ago and Sir Benjamin Robertson before the introduction of the reforms. Much water has flowed under the bridge since then and the India of their days cannot be compared with the India of to-day, which is pulsating with national life. The hostility of these two stalwarts of the "steel-frame" to the reasonable aspirations of Indians is too well known to require mention.

Moreover, Viscount Peel's statement in the House of Commons, in reply to Lord Sydenham, about the public services in India has shocked Indian opinion both non-official and official in Delhi. A new Public Services Commission to enquire into the alleged grievances of the members of the imperial services, besides clearing the way for a correct understanding of the British attitude towards India, may lead to a just perception of the impotency of the so called "India's Parliament."

NO GOING BACK

LORD LYTTON'S C MPLACENCY.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, Dec. 1.

There was a distinguished gathering at the Saturday Club to-night for St. Andrews Day celebration Dinner held under the auspices to the Caledonian Society, about five hundred Scotsmen and guests being present.

Replying to the toast of "Our guests" His Excellency Lord Lytton paid a tribute to the part the Scotsmen had played in the development of Bengal and after expressing the opinion that the political situation in the province had greatly improved during the past year said; "I was sorry to see the irritation which was caused recently by the speech of Mr. Lloyd George in which he referred to the Act of 1919 as an experiment. That irritation seemed to me to indicate the lack of faith in the stability of the reforms and the nervousness for which I can find no justification. Whatever any one may think of the Act, however, any one may describe it, let us all understand that you can never go back. Some of my friends were afraid that the new Secretary of State or the change of Government in England might endanger the successful evolution of the Reforms. In India any such fear is entirely groundless. To undo the Act of 1919 would be an act of revolutionaries. The new Government in England is Conservative Government and Conservatives are not revolutionaries. Let us set to work to make success of the materials in our hands. There are those who won't play the game and who make it a point of honour to stand aloof. We must show them that though we need them too and want their co-operation, we can do without them if need be and with or without their help we will serve to the best of our ability the interest of the land we live in."

HUNGER STRIKE IN RAIPUR JAIL

ILL-TREATMENT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS.

(From a Correspondent.)

RAIPUR, Nov. 28.

About seven days ago four political prisoners in Raipur Jail went on hunger strike in consequence, it is said, of the Government of India issuing confidential instructions preventing them from cooking their own food separately as hitherto. Two prisoners, Messrs. Bhagwatiprasad Mishra and Sunderlal Sharma are still holding out. They are handcuffed and put in heavy chains. Bhagwatiprasad is in addition, given solitary confinement. It is reported that though they are willing to live on milk until allowed to cook their food tubes for giving milk are thrust through their throat as punishment. Mr. Sunderlal Sharma is said to be complaining of pain in the chest.

RAILWAY COMPANY SUED FOR DAMAGES.

(Associated Press.)

MADRAS, Nov. 30.

At the High Court to-day Justice Coutts-Trotter heard a suit for damages to the extent of three thousand rupees filed by Mr. E. E. Mack I.C.S., Sub-Collector of Nellore District against the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Company on account of injuries sustained by the plaintiff on railway platform by falling into a pit six feet deep adjacent to a gentlemen's latrine on the night of the 29th August, 1921, while he was on the platform of the Nellore Railway station to catch the train for Madras. It was alleged that the pit was unprotected except by a parapet only about a foot and a quarter high at the spot where plaintiff fell and that there was no light put up to indicate the existence of the pit. By reason of this accident the plaintiff was prevented from attending a course of training in Survey and Settlement on which depended his future career. Some witnesses were examined and after hearing the counsel for defendants his Lordship reserved judgment.

Mr. A. J. Chotzner I.C.S. has been appointed as Additional Judge Calcutta High Court pending arrival from England of Mr. Arthur Page.

COMMERCIAL.

market has become small owing to the absence of buying power. The New York market remains steady because the Commission Houses were buying. There was some straddle selling and shorts covering producing little effect upon the market. But as there is a better feeling developing over there and good reports received from Manchester we do no think that the market will move further down but will remain steady at about this level

Although American advices were higher and Japanese yarn market improving still our local market fluctuated within narrow limits. The volume of business was small and was for the most part restricted to jobbers, no big operators having come out to deal as they see no confidence in higher prices.

As the demand for ready cotton from Exporting Houses was very moderate owing to the increasing arrivals in Berar Districts the values in ready market have depriciated. For a few days (or for a short time) Marwari jobbers continued buying on declines whilst Exporting Houses remained as sellers on advances. Our market working independent of the American market will not rise or fall too much, but will move steadily on a smaller scope. Further we expect the premium for December-January Oomra over March to go still further, as we fear that the quality of arrivals at present is such that it will not pass if tendered against forward sales.

The following were the changes in the Home markets as compared with last week:—

		Last week.	This week.
Liverpool	January	1.400	14.07 plus 7
Liverpool	March	13.82	13.88 plus 6
Liverpool	May	1.367	13.72 plus 5

New York	December	25.26	25.26 unchanged

New York	March	25.45	25.31 minus 14
New York	May	25.32	25.23 minus 9

LOCAL FORWARD MARKET.

Prices for Fully Good M.G. Broach April May fluctuated within narrow limits between Rs. 463 and Rs. 473 only throughout the week. In the beginning of the week the rate was quoted only Rs. 462-3, but later on in sympathy with higher advices received from America and as a result of bear covering due to recent rains having fallen upcountry, the rate improved to Rs. 468-9. From this level the prices gradually gave way owing to improved weather conditions upcountry and also to selling by ollices and Japanese houses. The Bazar finally closed at Rs. 461-8 on the 30th instant. Fine M.G. Oomra Dec. Jan. was in the commencement of the week quoted about Rs. 408 and steadily advanced to Rs. 412. On the 28th instant owing to shorts covering coupled with the absence of sellers, the prices jumped to Rs. 418 as compared with Rs. 415 for March Oomra contract. The market for Dec. Jan. Oomra finally closed on the 30th at Rs. 417-8. The rate for Fine M.G. Oomra March was easier in the beginning of the week, viz., Rs. 410, but prices gradually advanced to Rs. 422-8 on the 25th. From this level the rates again declined. he closing rate being Rs. 411-8 on the 30th. F.G.M.G. Bengal for Dec.-Jan. declined, the closing rate being Rs. 411-8 on closed on the 30th at Rs. 334, the highest being Rs. 340 and the lowest Rs. 333; whilst Bengals for March opened on the 24th at Rs. 343 and closed on the 30th at Rs. 341, the highest being Rs. 348 and the lowest Rs. 341.

PIECE-GOODS.

The cloth market has remained dull and quiet during the past week. The absence of wholesale enquiry has been keenly felt. The retail demand has also not been satisfactory and the sellers are having an anxious time, the state of affairs being very discouraging. To add to their difficulties, it is reported that a well-known Marwari Firm of nearly fifty years standing has suspended payment, being in financial difficulty, though it is said that the outstandings are of about one lac and thirty eight thousand rupees and the facilities of one lac and twenty two thousand rupees. Most of the merchants of the Mulji Jetha cloth Market are creditohs for piece-goods supplied amounting to about eighty two thousand rupees. It is likely that an amicable arrangement will be arrived at and the composition deed may be entered into, providing for four trustees, two of each side, to be appointed to recover outstandings and pay dividends from time to time to the creditors.

How little informed are prominent persons in Manchester regarding the state of affairs in India can be seen from the address delivered by Sir Edwin Stockton, M.P., on the condition of the Cotton trade and the effects of foreign competition at the Manchester College of Technology, in which he said that "he considered the prospects had improved in India where a reasonable amount of optimism was justifiable." As regards foreign competition it is safe to state that the inquiry at present is centred on Khadi cloth, so much so that at the principal mills no stock of khadi is visible. The Textile Mill agents are reported to have sold about 500 bales of Khadi at Rs. 1-1-0 per lb. and other mills have also sold fair quantity. The well-known concerns of local mills, on whom the eyes of all in trade have been turned at present have not been able to arrange transactions as the price demanded by the mills is Rs. 1-7-0 per lb. for Satin calender cloths and Rs. 1-8-0 for Longcloths, whereas the buyers could hardly offer Rs. 1-6-0 and Rs. 1-70 per lb. respectively and that too for very omall quuantity as no merchant will take any risk for large quantity at the moment owing to want of financial facilities, the uncertainty as to the future outlook ,and the heavy stocks lying with the regular dealers The local mill white mulls, which were selling well some months back, are now found to be a rupee per piece dearer than similar Lancashire mulls, although sellers have cut down the values of local mill cloths considerably. Some merchants have been passing full days without a single sale and transactions amongst the merchants have also been at a standstill. The only hopes are centred on the marriage season and the firmness of the Manchester market.

Prints have been very quiet and losses are incurred even on the cheap purchases, owing to the decline in rates here. A slight improvement has been noticeable in Grey Jaconets 39 inches by 20 yards Gold End Mulls have further declined in value by two annas per piece, Other cloths are neglected.

Some Indian Importing Firms have agreed to pay Rs. 1-4-0 per package as rebate of freight on stock goods and have consented to render an account of same to the Bombay Native Piece goods Merchants' Association every half year and on these terms some merchants have bought goods from them. But so far none of the leading Importing Firms has agreed to do so. It is also hear that the chairman of the above Association is in telegraphic and postal communication with the Manchester Chamber of Commerce and it is hoped that something good will turn out of this.

PATEL BROS. REPORT.

Dec. 1.

It was a week of unprecedented dullness and it now seems futile to keep up the spirits by prophecies of a speedy resumption of active business. The most deterrent factors at the present moment are free and large arrivals of cotton in the interior markets and a hopeless offtake of piece-goods and yarns in the markets of India and Japan. Though the local demand for the coarsest Indian cloth-Khadi, continues brisk, there are also to be considered "pari passu" the enormous difficulties of financing cotton at a time when the money market though obviously easy is not favourably inclined towards this line of business. Without any serious changes to note, values have remained practically unaltered during the entire week. Spot cotton was not much in demand and the exporters both for Europe and Japan were also quiet. Business in guiding contract, viz., the futures delivery contract has suffered considerably by the withdrawal of active operations of some of the leviathan speculators.

YARN MARKET.

Bom. Dec. 1.

Our market has continued to remain dull and unencouraging throughout the whole week without any special change and prices have kept more or less on the same level. Fluctuations have been very narrow and turnover on a small scale. Demand has been slack all along and consuming centres are operating hand to mouth. There is no confidence felt in the present ruling prices which they regard high and simply due to strong cotton position. Any drop in cotton, however, they maintain, will considerably effect the prices at once and as long as a low level is not reached business is unsafe and unwise. China has been very quiet and due to unfavourable exchange shippers have not made any purchases. The local market is lifeless and the only business reported during this week is in Japanese yarns. The talk of the town in these days is therefore nothing but "How Japanese are selling, what is Sampin, what is Japanese Exchange and what are the day's quotations for Japanese yarns?" In short the apanese have captured the market and have given a heavy blow to the Indian mills as well as to the Manchester yarns.

English yarn stocks are being sold at heavy losses. Fresh business is impossible, there being at least a gulf of six to seven pence per pound. Japanese yarns are moving fairly well and there is a large daily turnover of ready and forward goods in all counts. This week also reports fresh business with Japan for December shipments on a large scale About 3,000 bales of 20s. have been booked at 350/55 and a small quantity of 30s., 32s. and 40s. 42/2 grey and all mercerised yarns quote comparatively higher rates and heace there is not much business in them.

Indian mill yarns move very slowly, offtake being quite small. 6½s. his practically remained quiet and it is said 6½ and 8½ will not find much improvement due to strong competition from hand spun yarns 10½s. and 12½ have remained steady. 12½ ready had good demand and a good lot of Finlays have been done at 12½ annas. Forward delivery however is asked at 12½ annas. 14½s. ready Kilachand keeps steady and so also 16s. Swan which moves slowly 20s. and further counts have practically no sales due to strong and keep Japanese Competition and there are no immediate prospects for them unless of course a drastic cut in prices in made. Mills are quoting high prices due to strong cotton whereas dealers are unable to buy owing to daily weakening prices and very slack demand.

It is believed if cotton keeps steady, prices will stop declining and if prices are maintained demand will no doubt come in sooner or later.

FINANCE.

MONEY.

The long awaited activity in the money market is at length made beginning to become manifest. Although the rates in the market are quotably unaltered, there is a further improved inquiry and more money is being sent from Bombay to up-country for the financing of the cotton crop. There is also a progressive inquiry for money in the Calcutta market. We do not, however, look for a rise in the Bank-rate to 6 per cent until about the middle of this month The call money rate is still about 1½ per cent and the short deposit rate remains unchanged about 4 per cent for six months.

From the weekly statement of the Imperial Bank of India, Government deposits show an increase of Rs. 116.31 lacs, while other deposits show a decrease of Rs. 368.13 lacs The cash balance is reduced by Rs. 93.34 lacs and now stands at Rs. 27,02,58,0000, the percentage being 35.19 as compared with 35.53 of last week. The Bank rate remains unchanged at 5 per cent. There was a further decline in the demand for gilt-edged securities and the 6 per cent bonds are now quoted at 1/2 per cent premium.

The result of last week's sale of Treasury bills is as follows:—The total amounts applied for were Rs. 1,14,00,000 in three months bills and Rs. 67,00,000 in six months' bills. Tenders for three months' bills at Rs. 99 received about 20 per cent and above in full, the average rate of accepted tenders being Rs. 99-0-6 per cent. Tenders for six months' bills at Rs. 97-11 received about 57 per cent and above in full, the average rate being Rs. 97-11-6 per cent. The rate for intermediate six months' bills is Rs. 97-13 per cent. During the present week only Rs. 50,00,000 of Treasury bills are on offer for six months. This decrease in the Government borrowings, indicating that Government requirements have now been almost met, will be welcome in trade circles, more particularly in view of the approach of the busy season.

GOLD.

Gold opened steady and continued firm during the early part of the week; later on, however, there was a drop following the improvement in sterling exchange on London as well as the drop in the price of the metal in London from 91 s. 9 d. to 91 s., in sympathy with the American cross rate. At the lower level, the demand has improved and averages about 15,000 to 16,000 tolas a day, the stock being estimated at about 4 lacs tolas The highest and the lowest rates during the week were Rs. 26-3 and Rs. 26 respectively for cash delivery. This week's shipment is expected to be for about £1,75,000.

SILVER.

Silver likewise opened steady and continued firm during the early part of the week on favourable advices both from London and Shanghai. Later there was a reaction in the rates on bulls unloading. The price in London dropped from 32-7/16 d. to 32-1/8 d. for ready and from 32 d. to 31-3/4 d. for forward delivery. The decline in London rates is due to selling on account of America and the Continent. China was a small operator this week both here and in London The Shanghai-London rate moved between 2 s. 2 d. and 3 s. 1-5/8 d. The off-take has improved and averages about 120 bars a day, as upcountry buyers are attracted by the low level of rates. The stock is estimated at about 1400 bars. This week's shipment is expected to be for about £. 1,60,000. Although the tendency of the market is at present very uncertain, it would not appear probable that any decided fall is likely to occur.

SHARES.

The market was open throughout the week and there has been an improved volume of business passing, principally in textile shares by sundry jobbers, and, to a lesser degree, by outsiders. Prices have, on the whole, receded, in some cases as much as hundred points, this being the settlement week and weakholders being engaged in un-loading. The cloth and yarn markets, more-over, have not shown any improvement and the share market has received no encouragement from this quarter. Bombay Dyeings dropped from Rs. 1,255 to Rs. 1,165, Centuries from Rs. 625 to Rs. 572-8. Central Indias from Rs. 3,470 to Rs. 3,340, Crescents from Rs. 412-8 to Rs. 387-8, Indore Malwa from Rs. 580 to Rs. 545, Kohinoors from Rs. 1,735 to Rs. 1,645, New Great from Rs. 582-2 to Rs. 540, Pearls from Rs. 870 to Rs. 840, Shapurjis from Rs. 211-4 to Rs. 195 and Swadeshis from Rs. 3,450 to Rs. 3,210.

In the miscellaneous section, there was a further decline in the deferred shares of the Tata Iron and Steel Co., which dropped to Rs. 80; but these shares subsequently improved and close at Rs. 87-8. Tata Ordinaries are quoted around Rs. 36-4. Bombay Trams were on offer at Rs. 103-12. There is little interest shown in Cement shares, Katni Ordinaries are quoted at Rs. 217-8 and Bundi Cement round Rs. 29. Bank shares also suffered a decline; Imperial Banks are quoted at Rs. 1,330, Contributories about Rs. 240, Bank of India round Rs. 97 and Tata Banks at Rs. 15-4.

The following are the closing rates of the Bombay Stock Exchange.

EXCHANGE.

Exchange opened round 1 s. 3-29/32 d. and steadily advanced to 1 s. 3-31/32 d. Some business was placed at 1 s. 4 d. both here and in Calcutta. A fair amount of bills was also placed in both the markets. As mentioned in our last report, the reaction was temporary and the undertone still continues healthy. The demand for bullion import is as yet on a limited scale; but in view of the decreasing stock of both gold and silver, it is possible that we shall see a revival in the near future.

American Exchange on London improved from $. 4.49¼ to $. 4.52⅝, but reacted and closes steady at $. 4.51½ The German mark has again taken a downward plunge from 31,000 to 35,000 to the pound sterling. The French franc has also depreciated from 62.80 to 65.10 and the Belgian franc from 67.60 to 70.60.

MILL STORES.

Dec. 1.

There has been a lull in the market and the prices have undergone a slow and sustained fall in the important commodities. shipments from Home are very regular, and shippers are eagerly awaiting fresh indents booked, since, several large lots are lying at Home ready for shipment. The problem of unemployment has acutely touched various markets, and the consequent reduction in various commodities has been in evidence. Egyptian cotton Healds have been quoted at 27d. CIF Bombay, and the local rate has almost touched Rs. 2. Reeds have had some scarcity and are quoted at Rs. 0-5-3, whereas, home indenting price is 3½d. Roller cloth and sizing flannels have no further interesting features of note.

Among Bobbins, English Warper Bobbins saw a more healthy demand this week and 5 x 4 size Bobbins changed hands at Rs. 95 and 5 x 3½" at Rs. 90. Japanese Slubbings of 10 x 1 5/8 x 3/4 evidenced a small scarcity of ready stock and the price advanced by a Rupee or so per Gross. Rovings have had no further changes. Ring rabbeth of 5" and 6" enamelled quality kept at Rs. 13/8 and Rs. 12/8 respectively. Bandings and Fillets are steady. Lambeth ropes kept unaltered. The last quotations are as under:—

CONSTIPATION IS A CRIME.

Every man, woman and child pays a heavy penalty for neglected Constipation. Elimination of waste-matter is one of the most important factors in the maintenance of Health.

A noted Physician once said:—

"We lavish money on our houses to secure perfect drainage for them, but we fail to secure it for ourselves. If the main drainage system of our dwelling house leaks, saturating the subsoil with sewerage matter, we soon put ourselves in communication with Sanitary authorities.

"Yet we permit the main excretory system of our bodies to harbour foul, stinking and putrifying substances which overflow into all our tissues, flooding them with living disease-producing-germs, and are surprised and often aggrieved because we are stricken down with illness."

Continued Constipation will weaken the strongest constitution. Why continue to let Poison seep into your system and break down your Health?

USE CHEBULINE

and get rid of your Constipation. Chebuline is not a laxative nor a cathartic. It is a pure extract of vegetables which makes up the deficiency of the right amount of vegetable that is required in your daily food to correct the action of your bowels.

A tablespoonful of CHEBULINE, plain in water or soda, before or after meals, is what you require.

December 1.

The Freight Market continues to remain very quiet, only a very small business having been done for November/December. Total bookings amount to about 4000 scale tons at 20s. light seeds and 20s. seeds cotton. The rates have firmed up a bit owing to the tonnage market still going up, a December steamer having been fixed at 28s. deadweight, one to one basis. Forward business for January onwards amounting to about 7000 scale tons has been done by the liners at 17s. light seeds and 20s. seed cotton. Most of this business, however, covers earlier commitments.

LONDON SILVER MARKET WEAK.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, Dec. 1.

Montagu's silver report says that the depression now resting on the silver market, has carried prices lower than any have touched since spring time last year, when prices dipped to below thirty-one pence. The fall then was transitory, and the quick recovery ensued; but the factors at present at work do not appear to favour a similar reaction. The fact, that the change from the market of practically all the sellers on Tuesday to one of buyers on Wednesday only raised the quotation for forward deliverery one-sixteenth of a penny, indicates lact of stamina which does not augur well for future strength. The sterling exchange with the United States brought out silver with som freedom. During the week, India re-sold some previous purchases, being able to secure supplies more cheaply from China and Australia. China and Continent also sold. The main support still comes from bears covering, Indian or otherwise.

ANGLO-PERSIAN OIL CO.

DISPOSAL OF BRITISH GOVERNMENT HOLDINGS.

LONDON, Nov. 30.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

In the House of Commons, replying to Lieutenant-Colonel Spender Clay, Mr. Baldwin said that the question had naturally been considered of selling all the Government's holdings in the Anglo-Persian Oil Company in view of the considerable profit obtainable. He informed Col. Wedgwood, in answer to a question, that the point to be borne in mind was one of not selling the shares which gave the Imperial Government voting control over the company.

A Good time for every body

A VOYAGE ON B.S.N. CO'S. BOAT.

A PASSENGER'S EXPERIENCE.

To me it has always been a sort of an ordeal to travel by the Bombay Steam Navigation Company's boats, and I am writing this only with a view to bring to the notice of the public, once again, an evil that has outstayed its course, and must be done away with in the name of our self-respect and decency, if not anything else. I am aware that the question has been agitated both in the Press and in the Legislative Council, without any effect on the agents of the Company.

On October 9, I went to the Princes Dock to go by the "S.S. Courland" to Honawar in the North Kanara District. "Courland" is an old cargo steamer, and is extremely slow. She was mainly built for cargo purposes, and now she is employed for carrying human cargo, stowed anywhere and everywhere. I reached the dock about 10-30 a.m. and as I had already purchased the ticket, I had only to get a luggage pass for my trunk, which was not an easy affair. I had to scramble and struggle through, and after a great deal of delay and real hard work, I did get a pass and proceeded on board the steamer about 11-30 a.m. I found to my surprise the upper deck completely occupied, not an inch of space being available. After waiting for sometime to see if I could get a little room, I returned to the shore leaving my trunk in charge of a friend of mine to be taken by him to his place." I thought of taking a cabin ticket as a last resource—I say last resource, not on account of the cost, but on account of the want of any ventilation and the evil smell pervading them. They are full of bugs and dirty in the extreme, and in the hot days of October they are impossible. But even they were not available and I slowly returned to the quay, a sadder, but a decidedly wiser man, after scaling ramparts of kit on my way. That was my first attempt this season.

On 16th again I went to the docks and this time I was more successful. As I had not to purchase a luggage pass, I went to the steamer direct and by fair means or foul got aboard and perched on the top of a box where I was a permanent fixture for the matter of four days. Although it was about 10-15 or 10-20 every inch of space was occupied, and the people who came afterwards had to show themselves somehow on the deck. On the upper deck itself there were two big life-boats and lot of tackle belonging to the ship; on the other upper, there were four boats, with their impliment. The second one was near the engine room, and the flues and funnel passed through it. This made it extremely hot and necessarily most unpleasant.

I shall now go into the details of the journey.

ACCOMMODATION.

This is an item, which must necessarily come first. There were two decks, one lower and another upper, and a few "cabins" which contain a few bunks. On the lower deck all that space which is unoccupied by the office, the engine room, the cabins, the kitchen, etc. falls to the lot of the passengers. The passengers are many and the room very small, strewn all over with things which are so very essential to a ship. There are hundreds of passengers, lying in all positions, wedged between heaps of luggage, of which there are huge ramparts here and there. The luggage prevents the passengers from getting a good night's or even a day's rest, but then there is no help for it, for there is no other arrangement where all the luggage could be stowed. No doubt the Company will say that it could be put in the hold, but this is rarely done, and although the passengers pay extra for it, they and the luggage between them occupy the room which is only, legitimately, to be used for the use of human beings. When questions were raised about this, the Company said that it is the passengers' fault if they heaped luggage on the deck! But no other alternative has been put before the people and the evil continues. The Company thus gets the advantage—it divides between luggage and the passenger deck space which is given to the passenger only by the terms of its license or agreement, and deprives the latter of all comforts. That is the explanation of the congestion. While taking its full quota of passengers, with the accompanying luggage, no heed is paid to passengers' convenience. So, while the Company is within its legal rights, it is the passenger alone who is the sufferer. Every inch of the deck space is occupied and in the heaps of luggage, human beings strewn here and there in all positions, could be seen. The sufferings of the passengers have to be seen to be realised. But because the Indian is meek and all-suffering this state of affairs goes on unheeded, uncared for, and unhampered.

SANITATION.

Sanitary arrangements are of the most primitive kind. There are only a few privies to serve the needs of hundreds of passengers, and they are of the dirtiest kind. The deck is never swept once it is occupied by passengers. Very little water is available. Dirt and squalor and filth with their accompanying smell, are the lot of these "poor" people.

FOOD.

In regard to food arrangements, it is the Hindu who suffers, for he has a great objection to taking cooked food on the steamer. But those who have got over those prejudices are not better served. The food supplied, is prepared in a dirty atmosphere, and very limited in variety, and costly, looking to the condition of the passengers.

In the upper class there is only one privy for the hundreds of passengers, and that too is of the dirtiest description. One is kept locked for the use of the Officers etc. You can imagine the condition of the people, with so very few conveniences, waiting in queues to take their turn. Everything else is the same whether on the upper or lower deck.

Now I shall continue the story of the voyage from where I had left it. I started from Bombay on the 16th at 4-50 p.m. or so. That is to say I had a wait of nearly six hours in the docks. I expected to reach my place on Wednesday morning at about 10 or 11, and I actually reached it on Thursday at 6 p.m. that is 30 hours later. The steamer was detained and delayed all along. Most of the delay could well have been avoided. Out of sheer desperation, sheer self-respect, something ought to be done to alleviate the sufferings of these passengers. At Marmugoa the ship was delayed for nearly 24 hours, as no previous arrangements had been made to unload it at night, and it was only handled in the morning. The passengers with the scanty arrangements provided at that port had to go to another place—Vasco-de-Gama—about two miles distant for their food etc. for two days, as the steamer had reached Marmugoa about 5 p.m. on the 17th. Then a couple of the ship's crew were arrested for stealing some fowls etc., and an officer was sent to set them free and for all these people, several hundreds of passengers were again delayed for some hours. The dilatory methods of handling cargo reflect no credit on anybody. At Honavar again the ship reached about 3-15 or so and I should have reached the wharf an hour later, but I reached it only at 6 p.m. tired and exhausted.

A·HAPPY·BABY·MAKES·A·HAPPY·MOTHER
Mrs. S. W. says: "I myself derived great benefit from Glaxo during the months before Baby was born, and was always in perfect health."

You can nurse Baby yourself

If the greatest privilege of motherhood is to be yours; if you would know the joy of having Baby dependent on you alone for health and strength, make sure now that you will be able to nurse him yourself.

Very many mothers who could not otherwise nurse their babies have been enabled to do so by taking Glaxo themselves every day. Taken regularly two or three times a day (both before and after Baby's arrival), Glaxo enriches and stimulates the flow of breast milk, and maintains the mother's strength without taxing her digestion.

"Tins of Glaxo specially packed for the Indian Market always bear the "Glaxo Baby" on the centre panel and the wording 'for consumption in the tropics'. The food contained in tins so marked is guaranteed fresh by the makers. Do not purchase any tins which do not bear the above trade mark and wording.

'—I feel healthier, brighter, lighter.'

So writes Mrs. Drysdale after she had taken the OBESO-THIN Treatment for three weeks!

OBESO THIN

AFTER

Like Mrs. Drysdale, you also will get back your one-time healthfulness and energy. That feeling of lassitude, which now oppresses you will disappear. Indigestion, shortness of breath, and the many ills to which the stout are heir to, will trouble you no more. You will derive delight in walking and moving about your daily work. Your step will be buoyant, quick and elastic. All through taking "OBESO-THIN"

Chandernagore, 4th Nov., 1922.

I have been taking your "OBESO-THIN" Treatment, in conjunction with the "OBESO-THIN" Pills, for three weeks now and am ever so gratified at the results that I have obtained. I have reduced eleven pounds already and feel much the better for it. The feeling of lassitude which used to oppress me has entirely gone and I truly feel healthier, brighter, livelier and lighter than when I weighed 14st.-10lbs. Needless to say that, when I heard all that people had to say regarding Obesity Cures, I really felt almost about taking "OBESO-THIN," but on your assurance, and after seeing the Analytical Report, I became more confident. I don't know the after-effects of other Weight Reducers but I do know that "OBESO-THIN" does make one feel more younger and, moreover, I am confirmed in the belief that it could do nothing but good.

Gratefully yours,
(Sd.) [illegible]

The easiest, quickest, most healthful way to obtain a normal, youthful figure—

Without endangering health, respiration, or the normal functions of any of the vital organs, without submitting to massage or practising strenuous exercises, without subjugating your desires to the distressing observance of a strict course of dietary, "OBESO-THIN" is neither aperient nor cathartic; it is a palatable cooling draught which acts on the fatty components of food consumed and converts them into rich blood and muscle. Above all "OBESO-THIN" demands of you

No painful self-denials starvation—or abstinence.

"OBESO-THIN" takes 10 to 14 days to show appreciable results though in several cases its effects are noticeable almost immediately.

Tin containing 8-days' treatment, Rs. 5. "OBESO-THIN" Pills, strongly recommended to be taken with the treatment, Re. 1 per box.

Laboratory:—8-B Lall Bazar St., Calcutta, 30th Oct., 1922.

We have made a careful examination of the sample marked "Obeso-Thin" received from you on the 25th instant and find it to be free from injurious substances. In our opinion it is suitable for human consumption in the manner prescribed.

PROVINCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

The question of provincial contributions of which so much was heard in the September session in Simla will be revived by several non-official members belonging both to the National and Democratic parties. They all require that provincial contributions be stopped forthwith and Mr. M. K. Reddi, secretary of the Democratic party, will ask for withdrawal of the grant of sixty-three lakhs made to Bengal His resolution is in the following terms "This Assembly recommends to the Governor General in Council that the contribution of 63 lakhs of rupees proposed to be levied from the province of Bengal under the devolution rules as originally proposed and waived for a period of three years by this Assembly and the Government of India be re-imposed from the next financial year, in view of the fact that the central exchequer had itself a deficit unexpected at the time of such waiver and in view of the fact that the revenues of Bengal have fairly established since then and are better than those of most other provinces. This Assembly further recommends that the Government of India may be pleased to address the Secretary of State for India to get the sanction of the Parliament to change the present devolution rules accordingly." Finance is not the only sphere, that is intended to be trodden by that most silent member of the Assembly a non-Brahman protagonist as he is. He will urge for communal and caste representation in the public services, but doubt is expressed as to whether he will move his resolutions at all and face the music. His resolutions are as follows:—"That in the recruitment of candidates to the services under the direct control of the Government of India, the claims of the different communities grouped according to castes, creeds or linguistic differences should be adequately recognised and that to bring about a fair proportion of candidates of different communities in the services as early as possible the Government should be pleased to issue an order immediately that the initial recruitment at whatever stage be restricted as far as possible to candidates belonging to communities not already adequately represented and that in subsequent stages whenever promotion is made wholly by selection and not by seniority other claims being equal, preference should be given to candidates belonging to communities not already adequately represented.

LOAVES AND FISHES OF OFFICE.

"That in view of the fact that the present system of conducting simultaneous examinations to the recruitment of Indian Civil Services has resulted in an undue preponderance of members of particular communities belonging to particular presidencies, the present system be changed and that a different method of conducting the simultaneous examination so as to give a fair chance to candidates belonging to different communities and different provinces be devised if necessary by having a limited form of competition."

GUNTUR MUNICIPALITY.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, Dec. 1.

Sjt N. V. L. Narasimha Rao, Secretary of the Andhra Provincial Congress Committee has been elected chairman of the Guntur Municipal Council. He has all along been identified with the Non-co-operation movement and at the time of the Civil Disobedience Enquiry Committee's visit to Guntur he presented them an address of welcome on behalf of the Municipality, inspite of the disingenuous veto of the Disttrict Collector. It is reported that a suit has been filed to have Sjt. Narasimha Rao's election declared invalid and that an injunction has, also, been issued restraining him from entering on his office.

ORIENTAL PUBLICATION — THE GREATEST EPIC OF THE WORLD

THE MAHABHARATA

Translated into English prose from the original Sanskrit verse

By Late Mr. P. C. ROY, C. I. E. NEW EDITION.

Will be completed in 30 parts. Advance price for 30 parts Rs. 25 post free,

Each part Rupee one and postage Annas four only.

ELEVEN PARTS ARE OUT.

The publication of the new edition of the English version of the "MAHABHARATA" is now taken in hand. The first edition of the work was brought out long, long ago by late Babu Pratap Chandra Roy, C.I.E.

No Hindu, no Indian, no educated man will deny that the Mahabharata is the grandest work that the world has ever produced. The Mahabharata is not only a great Epic like the Iliad or the Odyssey, but it is at a rich history of the time-old age, it being an invaluable work on philosophy and religion, a precious jewel in the store of Politics and Sociology. Indeed, we do not know what it is not. That a wonderful piece of work so embroiled with innumerable varieties can still be a very fine thing is undoubtedly proved by the Mahabharata. Every nation is proud of the Mahabharata that the world has bestowed on her such a production. How much should India value it, thinking it to be her own priceless gem. How much more ought the Hindus to revere it, deeming it to be their own, yes, their own property? How much should they feel flattered that though it is theirs, it has now become a thing of the world.

MIRACLE OF SPIRITUALISM

This wonderful Planchette is made of wood and is shaped like a heart. Underneath are two pantagraph wheels about two inches high. There is a hole in the so made plank of board. In this hole is fixed an ordinary pencil which is so adjusted as to form, as it were, the third leg of the Planchette. In the centre of the Planchette is fixed an electrified magnetic compound having full SPIRITUAL and MESMERIC power. (This is the special pattern of Professor N. P. Kotie. The Planchette is then placed upon a sheet of white paper and two persons lay their hands lightly upon it, not in any way influencing its motion; then one of them, or a third person, asks a question, and the wheels move. The Planchette traverses the paper, and the pencil, of course, following the motion of the wheels, writes the reply very distinctly and freely. It is not necessary to ask the question aloud, a mental question is quite sufficient, and all languages are a like to the Planchette. Our Planchette is unique. Anybody may use it. It immediately writes the answers to the questions put to it. Everybody should own a Planchette. Price Rs. 5/8 (9s. 4d.) including postage and packing.

NOTE:—Full price refunded in case our Wonderful PLANCHETTE does not work according to our advertisement.

SUCCESS AND ENTIRE SATISFACTION GUARANTEED. FULL PRICE REFUNDED IN CASE OF FAILURE.

To be had of THE MAGICAL CO., JHANSI (INDIA).

NOW IS THE TIME TO TEST OUR WONDERFUL PLANCHETTE.

REMARKABLE PRESS OPINION.

The "H. Kesari," Volume II. No. 20, Thursday, October 26:—"We have received a wonderful Planchette from Prof. Kotie for Review. Really it is a wonderful pattern of Pro Kotie's invention. We are very much pleased to see its wonders. A person puts a question mentally or verbally and the Planchette moves on the paper and writes the answer neatly. Questions regarding the Past, the Present and the Future may be put and answers obtained in any language. Anybody may send for this planchette from the Magical Co., Jhansi, and see the wonders."

A FEW TESTIMONIALS MORE.

M. Simon, Esq., of Messrs. Brown and Co. Ltd., writes from Hatton (Ceylon) on the 15th Sept. 1921:—"I got one of your Planchettes from a friend of mine who came here from India, I can say that it is a very wonderful thing. During my entertainments I am in success every time with your Planchette."

I. B Honnavarkar, Esq., of the Eastern Bank, Ltd., writes from Bombay on the 23rd September 1921:—"I am glad to infrom you that I am successful in getting answer from the Planchette that I bought from you recently."
